See Over

Dear Mrs. Taylor:

As you can see, I am one of your neighbors, practically. I am doing a Ph. D. thesis for Queen's University on the Great Reform Convention of 1859. In it, I hope to examine the social, political and economic backgrounds of the various delegates in order to establish the salient and significant features of the pre-Confederation era. About a half dozen of the nearly 700 Reformers involved came from Prince Edward county, and I would be most grateful if you and your society could help me to track down relevant information, documents, newspapers and descendants of these people. In addition, of course, I am interested in anything that might shed light on the political and social life of the 1850's and 1860's, even if it means backtracking to the rebellion of 1837, or the coming of the U. E. Loyalists.

The delegates from Prince Edward were: Dr. James F. Carlett, Sophiasburg; Thomas Donnelly, Picton merchant; W. C. Dorland, MPP [who absented himself]; Dr. Geogre Gillespie, editor of the Picton Times; Absalom Greeley, Sophiasburg lawyer and county warden; Robert McDowell, Sophiasburg merchant-miller, Demorestville; David Ruttan, Demorestville farmer, Sophiasburg con 1, lot 23; and although not a delegate, I am interested in Walter Ross, later MPP.

Thank you for any help, time or consideration which you can give me. Naturally, I can travel wherever necessary, whenever I have any clues.

Yours truly,

Elwood Jones

Old 16th Regiment Colonel Famous Man About Town

Lt.-Colonel Walter Ross, M.P.P., (1878) was a son of Walter Ross, of the Parish of Fearn, Rosshire, Scotland, where he was born in 1819, and from whence he emigrated to Canada in 1842.

He first settled in Hamilton, and entered the dry goods business in the service of Bryce & McMurich, then among the leading wholesale houses of the country.

His aptitude for business induced his employers to send him to Picton soon after, to take charge (during the period of absence of Mr. McAllister, the manager) of their branch establishment of this place. He remained in this position till 1845, when he commenced a business for himself, which he gradually increased, till it was of an extent seldom seen in Provincial towns. His store had few equals even in large cities, for size, convenience, neatness, and completeness in every detail. The various departments were arranged in the most attractive and inviting manner. Everything about the establishment wore an air of "business" only requiring a glance to satisfy the observer that the manager was master of his profession.

Mr. Ross exhibited this same trait in all his enterprises; and it was a common remark, that whatever he undertook to do, he did it well; being very attentive and energetic in the profession of whatever task he turned his hand to do.

His qualities were appreciated by his fellow citizens. He was elected to the position of Town Councillor for eight successive years, and chosen to fill the mayor's chair, without opposition, for four consecutive terms.

He was a Member for Prince Edward in the last Parliament of Canada, before Confederation; having defeated William Anderson, the previous Member, in 1863, by a majority of 312.

He was elected to the House of Commons of the Dominion of Canada in 1867, over James S. McCuaig by a majority of 837; defeated Mr. McCuaig a second time at the general election of 1872 by a majority of 134, and again defeated the same gentleman in 1872, by a majority of 126.

At the Reform Convention in 1878 he was again the unanimous choice of the Liberals but declined on account of pressing demands of his private business upon his time and attention. Politicians' salaries were not sufficient of the need thereof.

In 1863, Mr. Ross was appointed Lt.-Colonel of the 16th Regiment of Volunteers, a position he held many years. His subordinate officers claimed he was the most popular officer in the Volunteer Force. From a knowledge derived from personal acquaintance with the facts, and based upon a comparatively extended military experience, Col. Ross was said to have commanded a regiment which was second to none in the service in any of those qualities which are the admiration of military men. To accomplish this result, the Colonel had the assistance of an able and efficient staff, as well as field, line, and subaltern officers who would do credit to any military service.

From this unit of volunteer infantrymen and the Hastings Rifles sprang the famous Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment of World War II.

Mr. Ross was President of the Prince Edward County Railway, in the organization of which he took an active and leading part, and with the success of which he was in a great measure to be credited.

He married in 1845, Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Thorpe, Esq., of Fredericksburg. Their eldest son, Walter T. Ross, was collector at the Port of Picton and of the Prince Edward District. He married again in 1861, a sister of the late Judge Fairfield, and widow of the late Dr. Pryun; and by this marriage there was one daughter.

In addition to his other business, Mr. Ross was for years, the leading grain merchant in the County. He was also one of the organizers of the Ontario and Quebec Navigation Company, of which he was for many years the largest stockholder, and for a long time president. He was senior volunteer colonel in this military district.

Mr. Ross owned the present Legion property where he built the original stone building. He built the present Hepburn residence opposite the Legion. He owned the land where the new Prince Edward Collegiate is now erected, as well as property around Glenwood Cemetery and in Tecumseth Ward.

One of Prince Edward County's great Liberals when our nation was in the making, he is one of the type of men who played the great part of forming Confederation and established the foundation of Canada as we know it today.

Ross Street, Picton, bears his name to this day.

On its 100th anniversary The Times salutes this wonderful gentleman and Picton businessman for the part he played in helping to establish our great young nation to the high position it holds today, throughout the world.

As if in testimony of his character, his integrity as a leader of the people, his era was marked by the beginning of the erection of many of the handsome, well-constructed brick and stone dwellings that even today may be found occupied throughout our County.

A Gentlemen's Pastime—Cricket

By ROVER

A sport originated by the Gentlemen for the gentlemen, is, what might be termed, the second national sport of England. The Marylebone Cricket Club, emblem of British cricket and home of the Gentlemen cricketers of England, has for decades smiled down on its patrons. From the time of the high silk hat and the cane, the frills, high button shoes and parasols, old Sol's benign countenance has nodded agreement to the whack of the bat or the crack of the wickets.

A leisurely sport of spotless white shoes, pants and shirt—a sport on which foul deeds are severely frowned—a sport in which the player must, at all times, be a gentleman in thought, deed and word. Hence the phrase "That is not cricket my good man".

So much for the lead in . . . now for some local highlights.

No more do we see or hear of cricket being played in this neighbourhood . . . no more do we hear the calls . . . "How's that Mr. Umpire?" . . . "Four" . . . or . . . "Nice play, sir!" The hallowed memories of this sport of the gentry has passed, along with many others, into the maelstrom of the forgotten age and the populace is interested only in the sports of a new era. But years ago, there thrived in this county of ours, a flourishing cricket club that toured throughout the district and played many games in the U.S.A.

Before the turn of the century cricket players in Picton were making a name for themselves on the greens and pitches of this and other centres. Names like Wallie Williams, Harry Sullivan, Ed. Hooper, Stan Craig, Art Chadd, Archie Sullivan, Dave Barker, Jackie Wright "Chuck" Hart and Gerald McKenzie were crossing ends and taking their stance in the creases of the cricketers' "hall of fame" . . . old fashioned daguerreotypes will refresh and keep in mind these "gentlemen" of a past and memorable decade.

Along about the turn of the century these boys were thrilling the young fry with their outstanding play and often journeyed to cities across the border to take part in cricket festivals. Cities like Chicago and Buffalo played host to the Picton Cricketers, but alack and alas, this leisurely sport which had its origin with the "upper crust" has long since passed on like the "crumb", and for years this county has not heard the cry of "How's that!"

Residents, Businesses Here Century Ago Are Recalled

313 Kenilworth Ave. North,
Hamilton, Ontario,
September 4, 1958.

Mr. Philip Dodds,
Picton Newspaper,
Picton, Ontario.

I read with interest the article about Picton, Ontario, which appeared in the Toronto Globe and Mail of August 26th, 1958. However, it neglected to state the name of the newspaper you represent nor whether it is a "daily" or "weekly". As I understand it, a weekly is interested in local news and if this is the type of newspaper you edit I submit the following.

Just recently I came across some old books in the house among which was an old directory of Canada of the vintage of 1858 and after reading the article in the Globe and Mail I looked in it to see if it had anything on Picton. It then occurred to me that as the people of Prince Edward County were strongly interrelated and proud of their United Empire stock and also that there were few communities in Canada as closely knit as Picton that perhaps some of your readers would be interested in the names too. I, therefore, enclose a list of the names and occupations of the old pioneer citizens who inhabited Picton one hundred years ago, as listed in this old directory.

Sincerely yours,

MARIE I. BUTTERWORTH

You will see from the letter attached to the Archives Dept. that I have asked for particulars of Order in Council 26 March 1817 re Daniel Ross. As you know many Loyalists did not settle on their granted lands, but traded for others, or sold and bought others. Daniel Ross my grandfather settled on Westerly, one third of Lot 2 Concession 2, Township of Ernestown 66-2/3 acres or less which he bought from Alexander Ross, who originally purchased the land, in all, 200 acres, from Robert Perry, who recieved the grant of land from the Government. Daniel may have left the grant of land he recieved and moved to join his brother in Ernesttown about 1834.

Dear Doctor Burleigh,

Enclosed is another letter from Ethel Ross that I have typed up for you. I re- your most recent letter with the Bible details of the Ross family and am very appreciative for it.

In the letter enclosed there are some remarks that only I can clear up for you and it will take me a long time but you will get them periodically until you have them all. It won't be easy but will feed the work in with my other assignments. In the last few years this hobby is now a full time ~~project~~ project and I need several secretaries.

Thanks again

EXCERPTS FROM THE LETTER WRITTEN BY MISS ETHEL ROSS OF TORONTO.

DATED SEPTTEMBER 11, 1953

I very much enjoyed ~~reading~~ reading the copies of excerpts from letters which you enclosed in your letter which I recieved on Tuesday ~~from~~ and also recieved your last letter dated August 8th, last evening. The name of Foster rings a bell in my memory. I well remember hearing my father speak of Willie Foster who spent some time with them on the old Ross farm, so presume he must have been the son of Mrs Elizabeth Ross Foster, daughter of Walter Ross.

I feel that Walter Ross, our ancestor, must have had a son William and that he was the father of Alexander Milton Ross, because he (Alexander) was a cousin of my fathers, in which case his grand father must have been Walter Ross, or a brother of ~~Walter~~ Ross, ~~xx~~ say another son of Captain Alexander Ross. If his grandfather was Walter Ross, son of Capt. Alexander Ross, then that raises the question of the name of old ~~Walter~~ Walter's wife. Was she Catherine or Hanna Prudence Williams? However we'll not worry about that at the moment.

My grandfather Daniel Ross had seven sons and two daughters. viz.

~~My~~ John, Joseph, Robert, William, Alexander (My father) James and Albert, all of whom I remember well. and two daughters Mary and Margaret. Mary married Alpheus Husband and they had four ~~children~~ daughters, Bertie, Abbie, Lizzie, and Alice all of whom have died with the exception of Alice, now Mrs Jack Lowes living at Coxvale, Ont, Margaret Ross never married and is long since dead as are all of the other Ross brothers. My father was the only one who married. He married Rachel Shephard of Bath, Ont. who originally came from Coventry, England. they had four children, Kenneth Alexander, Nora Williams, Ethel and Katrina Frances who died in infancy. I do not know where my brother is living or if he is living as we have not heard from him for 25 years or more. Of Nora and myself you know, so there you have all of us.

Daniel's brother, Alexander or Uncle Sandy married Margaret William in Bath, Ont. (How the Williams name keeps popping up) They had no children. I believe you have record of ~~his~~ his marriage and death at Bath, Ont. I have seen his tombstone in Bath at the Cemetary. I cannot account for all of the other Ross names who recieved grants of land from the Crown. It may be that Captain Alexander Ross had some other sons besides Walter (Our ancestor) of whom we are not aware. Of course you know that grants of land were given to children of U. E. Loyalists in many instances. The two Ross farms occupied by Alexander and Daniel were not granted by the Crown but were purchased from William Rogers and Robert Perry. I traced all of this very carefully and have lot numbers etc, all in detail if you want it. This is why I have been so anxious to find out where they came from when they moved to Frederickisburg, Ont.

I am delighted to know that we have cousins living so, near my sister Nora, and I do hope that Harry Ross will call upon Nora. I know she will be very glad to see him. Which grandson is he, or rather from which Ross is he descended?

I am returning your picture of A. M. Ross. Heavens, what a weight to carry around. No wonder he died at 65 years. I tried to locate his son Norman Garabaldi Ross. All I found out was that he had his early education at Upper Canada College in Toronto and then registered at Toronto Univeristy of Medicine, after which he was lost track of. He is probably dead by now or else a very old man.

I have been handicapped in my research owing to the fact that there was a bad fire in the village of Bath some years back and all the church official records were burned. They were kept in a safe in the store of my mother's brother, Mr Ernest Shepard, who was the town clerk and all the births, marriages and deaths records were burned, that is the Methodist Church records. The Anglican Church records are intact and they show the marriage of Alexander Ross and Margaret Williams.

Ross and Harkness

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

Your letter of July 29th, 1960 jolted me when I realized that I had not written you for ten years. Actually I became involved in completing the Harkness branch of my family and published from my own funds a ~~brief~~ outline of the genealogy in ~~memo~~ograph form. Then I went into doing a full scale book on one these Harkness men who fought Indians out in Oregon 1853-1856. I am just about ^{now} winding up the book and haven't done any genealogy research for years. If you don't have a copy of this James and Nancy Gray Harkness genealogy I did the work on let me know and I'll send you a complimentary copy. I don't have many left but I haven't forgotten your very helpful assistance years ago. Let me know. Now, about this Ross line. Your file will reveal Miss Ethel Ross made contact through you to me. I pushed that ~~source~~ in Toronto and did get some ~~details~~ in extended form. I never made any copies. Some time in the near future I'll have to do it and send you a copy but I ~~do~~ have to be cautious that it doesn't take me from the manuscript I am working on. I hope you can see the humor in what I will say now. I found out that Alexander Milton Ross filed his will in Detroit, Mich. When I told Miss Ethel ~~x~~ Ross I was going to try and get a copy she got thoroughly upset, stating that Wills were private. You and I know they are public property. I wrote that the only way (wrote Ethel Ross) was for me to secure it to further progress the research. I think I put in ~~x~~ another remark that offended her, plus sometime in our correspondence I inferred also that centuries ago Scots were not too fussy in keeping birth records or ~~for~~ ~~xxx~~ records of marriages, that is, some children could have been ~~illegitimate~~ ~~illegitimate~~ illegitimate. She hasn't written me since. I do know through her sister about two years ago that Ethel made a trip to Scotland (Balnagown Castle) and interviewed Lady Dorothy Ross, probably to try and find out if her ancestor was legally married etc. This is of course confidential.

Sorry for the long delay

Bath, Ontario, 17 Nov., 1960.

Mr. Paul W. Michaels,
47-06 45th Street,
Woodside, L. I., N.Y.

Dear Mr. Michaels:

I am enclosing more Ross notes, as I bargained to do. I hope that I do not stir up desires to probe the Ross legends, thereby leading you to lay aside the Harkness Heroes. However, I felt that I should get them off to you at this time. Repayment should consist of anything about this family which might increase knowledge of our early settlers.

You will note that I have included notes on a Walter Ross (items 1 and 2), the Member of Parliament for Prince Edward County, who came to this region in the 1840s. I do this in order that his line, or scraps thereof, might not clutter your own family.

Item 3 is taken from a family bible by a friend of mine last year in Belleville, Ont. She was at an auction sale in that city and discovered that the bible was lying there as if for sale. While she was copying the items from it, a man came along and claimed it, as it was not to be sold. She explained that she was copying the notes for me who was making a collection of genealogies of our early families. He let her finish, then took the bible with him. I could not discover his name, but he was evidently the man who was in control of the sale. My copyist stated that he was from Toronto, Ontario.

As you will see, this bible belonged to the parents and brother of Alexander Milton Ross. As you will already know, William Ross' wife, Frederica, was a daughter of John Grant, for whom their first child was named. In addition, from the Ketcheson Family Notes, I discovered that James, a son of William and Frederica, married a Ketcheson, so I am able to include their family at this time. (item 4)

An interesting feature, which points to a family connection between William and the Alexander who lived near Bath, is the obituary of Mary Elizabeth, the daughter of John Grant Ross and Elizabeth Carriff. Note that this child died at Alexander's almost a year after her mother died. As I have it, Alexander, of Bath, was an uncle of John Grant Ross.

Item 5, Bath Burials, 1900-1914, gives the death dates of three children of Daniel, brother of Alexander, of Bath, and William, of Prince Edward. These would be uncles and aunt of Miss Ethel Ross, if I am right.

As I have intimated earlier, I expect payment for these items in the form of copies of pertinent notes relative to this Ross Family. I do not expect an immediate reply, but must ask you to keep me in mind.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. Darleigh.

Lt.-Col. Walter Ross, M. P.

Son of Walter Ross and Christine McCulloch, of the parish of Tain, Rossshire, Scotland, was born Dec. 25, 1817, in the parish of Tearn, Rossshire. He emigrated to Canada in 1842, and first settled in the city of Hamilton, where he worked in the drygoods store of Dryce and McArrich. Soon after he was sent to Picton, Ont., to manage their store there. In 1845, he left their employ and started in business for himself.

He served as Town Councillor of Picton for eight years, following which he was mayor for four consecutive years. He was the member for Prince Edward in the last Parliament of Canada before confederation, having been elected in 1863. He was elected to the House of Commons of the Dominion of Canada in 1867, and again in 1872, but refused a subsequent nomination, as his business required his full attention.

In 1863, he was appointed Lieut.-Col. of the 16th Regiment of Volunteers, which position he still held in 1878.

Mr. Ross was President of the Prince Edward County Railway.

He married, in 1845, Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Thorpe, Esq., of Fredericksburgh, who died before 1878, leaving a family of two sons and two daughters (see notes on Ingersoll Family), three of whom are married (as of 1878). They are:

1. Walter T. Ross, the eldest, collector of customs at the Port of Picton.

Mr. Ross married a second time, 14 Sept., 1861, to Clara Louise Maria Fairfield, daughter of Benjamin Fairfield and Clara Wilcox Bidwell, who was born at Bath, Ont., 23 Feb., 1818, and who was the widow of Dr. Abraham Van Vleck Bruyn. There is a daughter by this second marriage.

The following are excerpts from the letter of Ethel Ross
, from Toronto, Ontario, Canada dated Sept. ~~2nd~~, 1953

Quote,

Walter Ross, our ancestor had eight sons and two daughters, as per Elizabeth Ross in a letter dated April 12th, 1888.
The sons are

WILLIAM ROSS
JOHN ROSS
ROBERT ROSS
ALEXANDER ROSS
DANIEL ROSS-----{ETHEL ROSS DESCENDANT FROM THIS DANIEL}
WALTER ROSS
JOSEPH ROSS-----{PAUL W. MICHAELS DESCENDANT FROM THIS
JOSEPH ROSS}
ONE MISSING-----{No record as of 1960}

DAUGHTERS

AUNT POLLY*-----{Polly nickname for Mary}
ALSO A GIRL-----{ WHO DIED YOUNG}

From the Joseph Ross line we learn of a son William Wallace Ross and from him a son and daughter, Harryxx and Clara. No doubt you can verify this. (Yes, this is correct and both are both living as of 1960 but very much along in years. PWM)

From the William Ross line we learn of Dr. Alexander Milton Ross and his son Norman Garabaldi Ross.

From the Daniel Ross line we find seven sons and two daughters, that is

ROBERT ROSS
JOSEPH ROSS--{P.W. MICHAELS NOT A DESCENDANT OF THIS JOSEPH}
JAMES ROSS
ALEXANDER ROSS--{ETHEL ROSS FATHER}
ALBERT ROSS

DAUGHTERS

MARAGARET ROSS
MARY ROSS (HUSBAND)

From the ~~Alexander~~ Ross line, (My Uncle Sandy) no children.

Alexander (See under Walter Ross line)

He is the one whose marriage and death are in your records and mine also and who's tombstone I saw in the Bath grave yard.

Eliza Ross Foster must have been a granddaughter of our ancestor, Walter Ross, as correspondence on record shows her writing to her Aunt Mary Harkness, and referring to granpa Ross and also to Uncle Daniel. She must have been a daughter of one of the eight brothers, possibly, John, Robert, Wlater, or the missing one.

the ship "Albatross"

Witness my hand and seal
this 1st day of January 1872

I am in the dark as to Walter Ross's sons, John, Robert, and Walter, but I think there must have been a Walter Ross the third, because in a letter written by Walter Ross from Madison Lake County, Dakota, in June 1888 to W. W. Ross, Fremont (OHIO) Clara Ross's Father, he says "Dear Cousin, Sister Eliza, sent your letter to me," (Note by PWM. I read all the W. W. Ross letters in the early 1950's at the home of Clara in Ohio and there was none giving a clue so Eliza and Walter must have been brother and sister, but I can't say which one of the eight sons they claim as a father. Perhaps Mrs Stull may know or you may know).

I still have some copying to do for you but am holding off on Captain Alexander Ross data,, until, as you suggest, we get the eight sons and the two daughters settled. I am sure sure that Captain Alexander Ross had more sons than just, Walter, our ancestor.

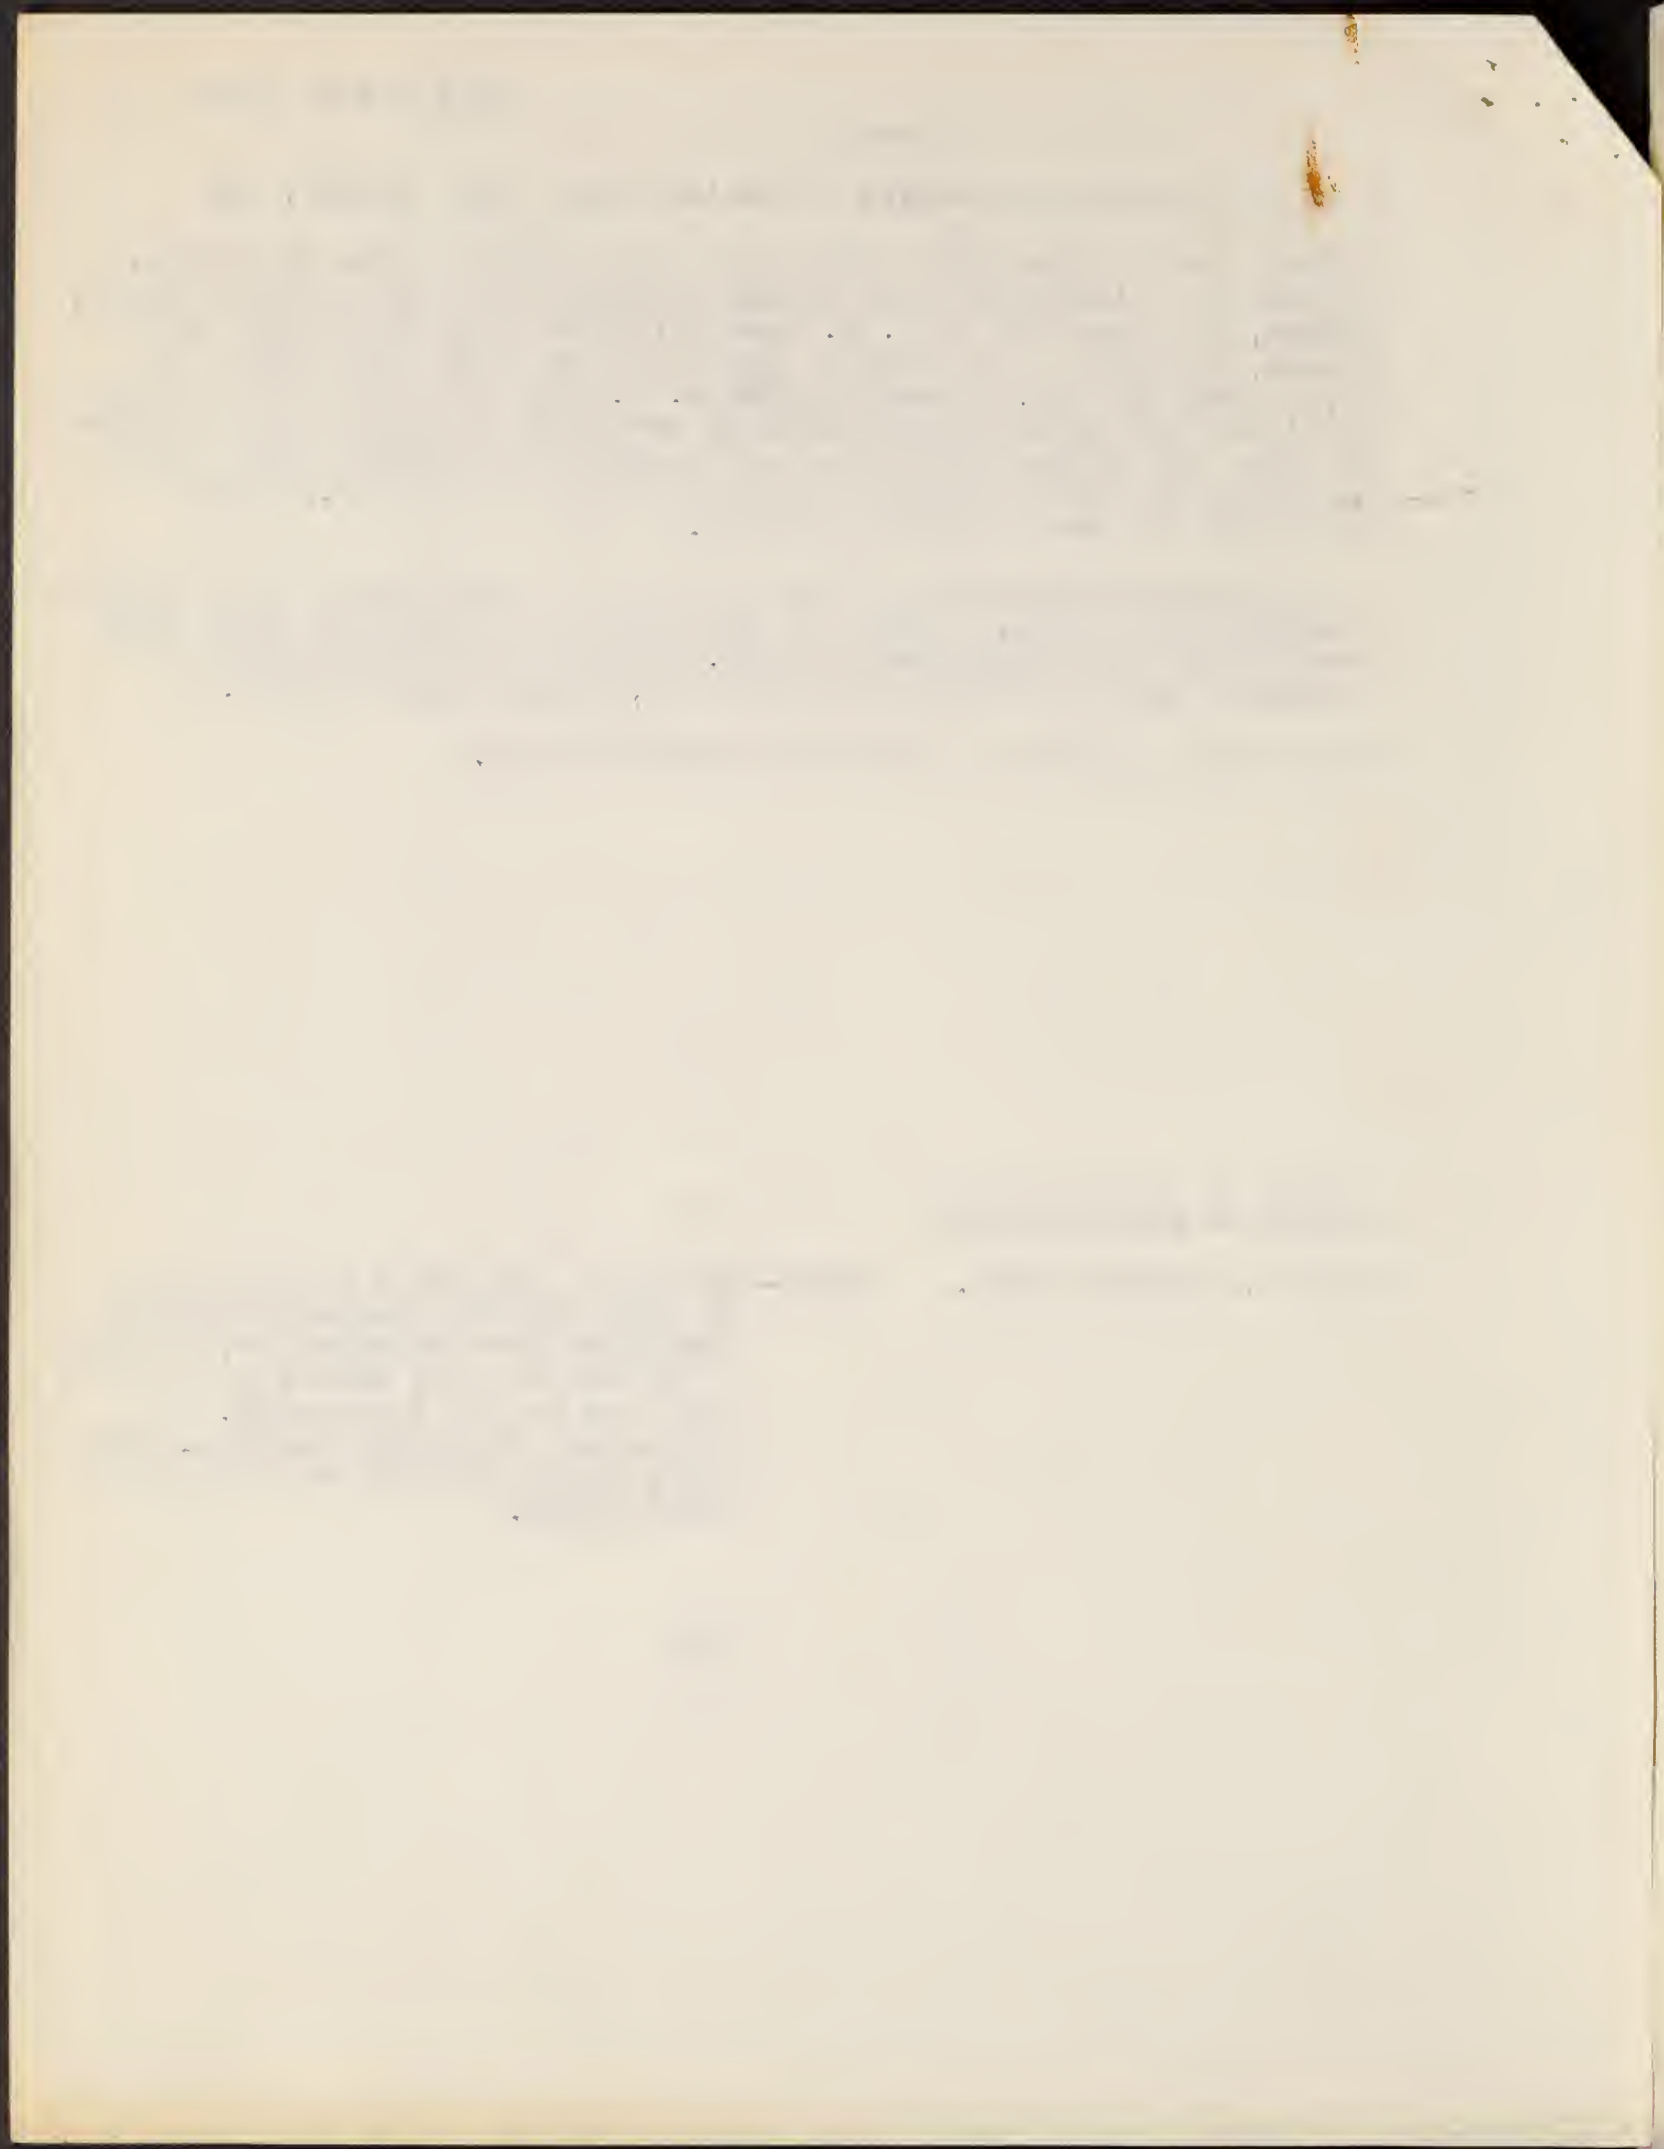

Then Ethel Ross signed off in the usual manner.

COPIED BY ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~

Note:- No one as yet has been able to find out what Regiment Captain Alexander Ross belonged to, that is, the one who had Walter as a son and from we are descendant. All trails end with this Captain. There are general indications but none technically.

Dear Dr Burleigh,

It has been some years I have written you and I imagine that you have felt much relieved that I did not. However as you know Miss Ethel Ross has made contact with me and I have sent her several letters enclosing some Ross material. Up to this time I have had no response and am delaying further correspondence beyond this letter, until I get a reply.

During the lapse of several years I have not been idle and am ~~enclosed~~ enclosing a complimentary copy of my first release on my research, in mimeograph form and the Harkness family that I am connected. I think you'll find it of interest as I am making a general distribution "through" genealogical channels. I'll send one to Ethel Ross also when I hear from her again, (complimentary) Other contacts I am asking $2.00 per copy to cover expenses.

I have been reading your extended account on the Ross'es you sent some time ago and I think we can safely say, that of the ten children of Mr Walter and Catherine Williams Ross, the following are authentic:-

1-ALEXANDER ROSS (6.2.1788; 7.9.1865)

2-----DANIEL ROSS

3 ----- JAMES ROSS

4 ----- JOHN ROSS

5 ----- JOSEPH ROSS

6 ----- ROBERT ROSS

7 ----- WALTER ROSS

8 ----- ELIZABETH ROSS (FOSTER)

9 ?????????????????? PETER

10 ?????????????????? DORCAS

NUMBERS ~~THROUGH~~ FOUR THROUGH EIGHT

MOVED TO THE UNITED STATES

Ethel's Daniel fits into the picture and so does her Alexander "Andy" John and Robert ~~and~~ are mentioned in Joseph's Obituary, while I have old letters of Walter Ross and Elizabeth Ross Foster. Peter and Dorcas I am guessing.

I haven't been ~~well~~ feeling too well in the last few years and I guess one reason is that I have put so much effort into the Harkness phase. In any case for all reasonable purposes it is finished. I still have a great deal of setting up to do on it. Also I am writing a special manuscript on McDonough Harkness, who was a rough and tumble Indian fighter, during the frontier days and got him self in true Indian fashion. Everyone except "President Eisenhower" is trying to get me to ease up on this work. Perhaps if you have any extra Penicilin up there you can mail some my way. My own Doctor has me on special vitamins and on some occasions sleeping pills. (P. S. I don't drink)

I hope Miss Ross will stay with me on this and we'll pull it out of the "fire".

ALTHOUGH THE FOLLOWING PAGES ARE SMALL IN NUMBER, THEY REPRESENT MANY YEARS OF PAINSTAKING RESEARCH, COORDINATION AND COMPILING OF THE FAMILY STATISTICS. THE RECORDS HEREIN ARE AUTHENTIC, AND HAVE BEEN GATHERED FROM HUNDREDS OF SOURCES. IN MANY INSTANCES ONE DATE HAS TAKEN MANY MONTHS TO SECURE.

ALTHOUGH THE RECORD BRINGS THE FAMILY HISTORY ONLY TO THE MIDDLE OF THE 19TH CENTURY, THE STATISTICS HAVE BEEN COLLECTED BEYOND THAT DATE TO THE PRESENT GENERATION WITH THOUSANDS OF NAMES. THESE ARE STILL IN MEMORANDUM STAGES AND BECAUSE OF THE TREMENDOUS LABOR INVOLVED IN "SETTING THEM UP" CORRECTLY, IT WILL TAKE MANY YEARS TO PRESENT THEM. THUS IT WAS DECIDED TO RELEASE THIS STORY OF THE EARLY DAYS OF THE FAMILY BECAUSE OF THE INTEREST DISPLAYED BY THE DESCENDANTS.

SOME RELATIVES HAVE COMPLETED GENEALOGIES OF THEIR SPECIFIC BRANCHES, BUT NONE HAVE EVER TAKEN IN THE ENTIRE FAMILY, THEREFORE, THIS IS THE FIRST TIME IN ALL THE GENERATIONS, THAT IT HAS EVER BEEN COMPLETED.

ONLY THOSE WITH THE NAMES OF HARKNESS AND GRAY, WHO CAME FROM PELHAM, HAMPSHIRE COUNTY, MASS., AND SALEM, WASHINGTON COUNTY, N. Y., ARE RELATED TO THIS BRANCH. BEYOND THAT TIME, TO THE DAYS OF WORCESTER, MASS., AND PRIOR TO THAT TIME, IT CAN BE PROVEN FAMILY CONNECTION EXISTS. HOWEVER, RELATIONSHIP IS SO DISTANT, THAT IT COULD HAVE LITTLE BASIS IN FACT, BECAUSE OF THE MANY, MANY PERSONS INVOLVED IN THE FAMILY LINE.

The Harkness Family first came from Scotland. Later they migrated to Northern Ireland, and in the year 1718, they sailed for the Colonies, arriving at Boston, Mass. The Harkness Family remained in the area of Worcester, Mass., for a number of years prior to settling in Pelham, Hampshire County, Mass.

PELHAM

Pelham, Hampshire County, Mass., was incorporated on January 15th, 1743. Before the incorporation, Pelham was known as the New Lisburn. The "Old Cemetery" was laid out in the year 1739, thus indicating that there were inhabitants of the small settlement for some years prior thereto. A requirement that all of the settlers had to conform, was that they must have religious beliefs of the Church of Scotland, (Presbyterian), or they could not become residents of Pelham.

Pelham, Mass., is about six miles from the University town of Amherst, on top of a mountain known as Pelham Hill on Daniel Shays Highway. In 1765 there were 370 persons residing there and in 1776 the population was 728.

The Town Meeting House at Pelham was built in 1743, and the original building still stands and is in frequent use at the present time (1952). The author visited there and viewed the interior, which is still kept as it was in the early days. The benches, pews and other relics of that period are still in use. The "Old Cemetery" that was laid out in 1739 is next to the Meeting House, but because of the passing of time, the inscriptions on the stones are not visible. There are several other cemeteries in the vicinity where many early settlers are buried.

On April 7th, 1757, James Harkness married Nancy Gray at Pelham, Hampshire County, Mass. Of this union there were seven children, namely, John (called the 2nd.) born 1759-1760. Some records place his birth 1759 and also 1760. (Both records can be considered correct, as in both instances it is stated that he married Rachel McNall); William, born 1757 married Easter Bridge of Westfield, Mass. 1783, August 31, (Int.) Alexander, no statistics available; Margaret, born 1774, married Nathaniel Gray in 1791; Isabel, born August 1770, married James Bell April 10th, 1791; Jacob, no statistics available; James, born April 21st, 1776, married Mary Rhodes January 11, 1799. All of the children were born in Pelham, Mass.

It should be revealed at this point that there was another Harkness Family living in Pelham, Mass., in the same "period", namely, William Harkness, who was married to Ann Gray on June 28th, 1748, at Pelham, Mass. Seven children were born the issue of this marriage, also, and these were: John born in 1760, married to Keziah Edson; William, married Isabel Gray; David, born in 1757, who married Sarah Gray; James, born in 1759, married Elizabeth Edson; Daniel, born in 1762, married Lyda ; Jonathan, married to Elizabeth Thompson; Nancy, married Nathaniel Sampson.

Nancy Gray's relationship to Ann Gray was that of cousin. The statistics are as follows: John Gray, Nancy's father was born in Ireland about 1700, one of nine children; and one of his brothers was William, who was the father of Ann Gray. The Gray family came from Londonderry, Ireland. Nancy's brothers were Daniel, Capt. Isaac Gray, John, Ebenezer, Nathaniel, another brother was believed to have been born. Nancy Gray's sister was Elizabeth. All of the Gray men were Minute Men in the Revolutionary War.

All evidence at this point of research (1953) indicates that James Harkness and William Harkness were brothers. These men married Nancy Gray and Ann Gray as recorded. The family line from these two marriages are tremendous to date and many have distinguished themselves in numerous fields of American life through the generations.

James Harkness and William Harkness each held various town offices from the year 1756 to 1767, and then William continuously from 1773 to 1776.

For the years preceding the actual conflict between the Colonies and England, everyone in Pelham actively participated to bring about the separation from the "Mother Country". Some belonged to a Committee of Correspondence, as did James Harkness. James Harkness' first enlistment was April 19th, 1775, the day of the Lexington Alarm. He continued to be active as a "Minute Man" and served under various commanders as Private and Corporal until his discharge on August 25th, 1779, at New London, Conn., with 85 miles travel time to Belchertown. (Belchertown was next to Pelham, Mass.) James Harkness died in 1779 in Pelham, Mass., and his recorded age at that time was 57.

John (the 2nd) son of James and Nancy Harkness, was a Revolutionary soldier in his own right. His first enlistment was August 1777, and he served for a total of fourteen months, as a private. John (2nd) Harkness was pensioned on Certificate 5 661, and in 1832 he was living in Springfield, Bradford County, Later all the members of the small "Army" were pardoned and signed an Oath of Allegiance to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Daniel Shays, himself, was a Captain in the Revolutionary War and a Memorial was erected to his memory a few years ago and this was placed on the grounds next to the Meeting House.

About 1790, Nancy Gray Harkness and her family moved to Salem, Washington County, N. Y., a growing settlement of Scotch-Irish inhabitants.

SALEM

Salem, Washington County, N. Y., was settled in 1761 and in later years many came from Pelham, Mass., all of Scotch-Irish descent. The Town was officially organized in 1787. It is located slightly northeast of Albany near the border of Vermont. Salem is not far from Saratoga, (Now Schuylerville) N. Y., the area of some of the most bitter fighting in the Revolutionary War.

Here in Salem, N. Y., Nancy Gray Harkness died May 7th, 1824, at the age of 85.

James Harkness, son of James and Nancy Gray Harkness married Mary Rhodes on January 11, 1799, at Pelham, Hampshire County Mass. James returned to Pelham for the marriage and then made their home at Salem. The children of this union were Jacob, born March 22, 1800, married Jerusha Hill November 29, 1829; Nancy, born December 6th, 1801, married Isaac Wright, approximately 1820; James, Jr., born June 22, 1804, died August 11, 1807;

Mary, born August 31, 1806, married Joseph Ross, "Spring" 1831; Jane, born August 22, 1808, died March 6th, 1811; James, Jr., born June 16th, 1810, married Mariah Johnson, second wife, Hannah Whitmore; Jesse, born August 2nd, 1812, married Eleanor Sarah Collins; Daniel, born May 1st, 1814, married Harriet Whitmore, July 22, 1859; McDonough born November 16, 1816, no marriage; Samuel, born November 11, 1818 married Marietta Chapman 1842, second wife, Susan Davis, October 1877. All of these children were born in Salem, Washington County, N. Y.

James Harkness, who married Mary Rhodes, formed a company of Militiamen during the War of 1812, and was appointed Captain of this Militia Company. Proof of their activity is filed with the National Archives, Washington, D. C. under the reference B. L. Wt. 94 555 120 55. Jesse Rhodes and Solomon Rhodes were also members of the Company, and are in the family line. (Note: that the spelling is sometimes Rhodes and Rhoades but they are one and the same.) At the time of the great naval battle between McDonough the American and the British under Pring, at Plattsburg, Capt. Harkness and his men were actually on Lake Champlain at the time of the engagement enroute to McDonough's forces as reenforcements, in 1814.

From Salem, N. Y., McDonough Harkness traveled with his father and mother and some of his brothers to Guilford, (Seville) Medina County, Ohio. Records have not revealed the exact date, but it is believed to have been between 1822 and 1826. Mary Harkness reached Guilford in 1829, while her sister Nancy, who had married Isaac Wright, settled there in 1830. Jacob and Jerusha

Hill Harkness arrived approximately 1830, but not later than 1832. Nothing has been found to indicate why the Harkness family moved from Pelham to Salem, to Guilford. It may have been the search for good farm land, but yet a few years later, they moved again to Walworth County, Wisconsin.

GUILFORD

Guilford Township was once part of the Conn. Western Reserve and technically No. one ----14th Range. Indians roamed the area freely. The first settler arrived there in 1811. William Bell, a son of James and Isabel Harkness Bell, settled in 1819. Mr. William Bell first visited the area in 1817. James and Isabel Harkness Bell, with their family, arrived at Guilford in 1821. Isabel Bell was a sister of James Harkness, who married Mary Rhodes, and it is certain that it was her influence that brought the Harkness family to Guilford in the succeeding years. The Bell family was very prominent in Medina County, in those years. Members of the Gray and Rhodes family settled here in the early days from Salem and Pelham.

Guilford, in the days of settlement, was virgin forest land and afforded the Indians excellent hunting. Wildlife was plentiful, including deer, bear, elk, wolves, raccoon and wildcats. Fish were to be found in abundance in nearby streams.

Guilford Township was organized in 1819. The incorporation of Seville took place in 1853. The Post Office at Guilford was changed to Seville on March 19, 1873, in Guilford Township (Seville). Mary Rhodes Harkness died April 19, 1833 and believed Although educational facilities were limited in the pioneer days of Medina County, it should be noted here that in each of the Bell, Rhodes, Gray and Harkness families, there were many who were school teachers. Thus it was that the children of those days received much of their early education.

WALWORTH COUNTY, WISC.

In the year of 1837, one year after Wisconsin became a Territory, Samuel, McDonough and Daniel Harkness, left Seville to settle in this new frontier. Wisconsin became a State in 1848. Nathaniel Bell and James Harkness, Esq., with their families, made the journey in 1837 to Walworth County. Isaac Wright and his wife, Nancy Harkness, with their family journeyed to Wisconsin. Jacob and Jerusha Harkness followed later, shortly after 1837. Mary Harkness Ross with her husband Joseph and their family remained in Seville until his death in 1876, when the family moved to Fremont, Sandusky County, Ohio. There two of the sons had already established homes. Jesse Rhodes moved to Walworth County also, but Solomon Rhodes remained in Seville, Ohio.

James Harkness, after the death of Mary Rhodes Harkness in Seville, married three times again. In each instance the wives died prior to the subsequent marriages. As far as is known, there were no children born the issue of these last three marriages. He married Dorcas Cook September 24th, 1833; married Mary Ware March 28, 1839; married Mary P. Mills November 3rd, 1852.

James Harkness, Esquire, died September 9th, 1861, at Lafayette, Walworth County, Wisconsin. His Will is on file at the County Court House at Elkhorn, Wisconsin. He is interred in Lafayette Cemetery, a short distance from Elkhorn. In addition to the Lafayette Cemetery, there is the Spring Prairie Cemetery where Isaac and Nancy Harkness Wright are buried, and some of their family. After a few years, the Wright family moved to Trempeleau County, Wisconsin.

Walworth County was organized in 1838. Lafayette was officially recognized March 21, 1843, and was formed from a section of Spring Prairie known as 3, Range 17 East. Lafayette is bordered by East Troy, Spring Prairie, Geneva, Elkhorn and Sugar Creek. Here in this area of Walworth County and nearby, are descendants of the Harkness Family (1952) and it is likely that many of this family will be living in the vicinity for generations.

For the time James Harkness married Mary Rhodes, in Pelham, Mass., their stay in Salem, N. Y. and then to Guilford (Seville), Ohio, including Walworth County, Wisconsin, at least for a number of years there, this group always moved as "one unit". There were one or two exceptions, but these followed several years later, except Mary Harkness Ross, who stayed in Seville. Few were left behind in these towns unless death had claimed them. This situation appears to have been the same for some of the Bell Family, also for the Rhodes Family, and the Grays who came to Ohio. In Walworth County, about the year 1850, the group began to "split", some to explore areas of the United States that were still Territories. (Dakotas, Minnesota, Washington, California, Oregon and Wyoming.)

It should be noted that living conditions in the days of the pioneer families of the era that is written, could hardly be called a comfortable life. On the frontiers in the early days of this country, the home consisted of a log cabin. Privacy was almost non-existent, as there was in most cases only one room. Ventilation was the chimney and on severe cold days there was no fresh air at all, in order to keep the wintry blasts from penetrating the cabin. The men, as well as women, had to forage for food, in hunting, fishing, raising crops and felling trees to clear land. Loneliness among the early pioneers was one of the most distressing situations that had to be overcome. That is one reason the Harkness family, after one group had settled, called to the others to follow; also why they remained together. Distances between settlements and the nearest cabin were tremendous. There was no telegraph, telephone or radio. Transportation was almost primitive in comparison to these days, (1953). There was some postal service, but not frequent or reliable. Thus it was in Wisconsin Territory and to some extent in Guilford. Alertness against attack by wild beasts of the forest was essential. Mary Harkness Ross has recorded (Guilford) how she shot a wild cat about to jump down the chimney, how the animal fell to the floor, clawing at the carpet in its death struggle.

The Black Hawk Indian War was fought over areas of Wisconsin a few years before the arrival of the Harkness Family, and evidence of the Indian activity was to be seen as the new settlers arrived.

James Harkness, Esquire, held numerous town offices prior to his death in 1861.

In 1837 Harriet Whitmore, the first white child, was born in Lafayette. Later, and on July 22nd, 1859, she married Daniel Harkness, (Born May 1st, 1814).

Through these years of 1837 to 1851, the younger men of the families were becoming adjusted to frontier life in a way that only can be experienced by living it. Although law and order did prevail in Wisconsin, there was the constant fear of the Indians who roamed the countryside. Many are the tales that have been told by the family of the Indians visiting the farms for food and begging for other necessities, including liquor. The winters there were always severe. The summers and autumn in sharp contrast to the freezing winter months.

After gold was discovered in California, and a short time later in Oregon Territory (1851), the news had swept the growing Nation and excited the younger men to adventurous plans. Visions of great wealth plagued the minds of McDonough Harkness, who was the first to move, also Samuel Harkness, James Wright, Edward Wright, George Wright and Langdon Porter.

Many of the historic Indian Battles had not yet been fought. Frontier history was still in the making.

VARIOUS NOTES AND COMMENTS BY PAUL W. MICHAELS:

Nancy Gray Harkness was also legally known as "Agnes" in Pelham, Mass. This is reflected in the Court Records on file at Northhampton, Hampshire County, Mass., under the Guardianship documents and the Will of James Harkness when it was admitted to Probate July 4, 1780. Further, the "unnamed child" as stated in the Will, when made March 2nd, 1776, is the James Harkness born April 21, 1776. These are on file in the Probate Court, Northampton, Mass.

There is a recorded "Coat of Arms" for the Harkness Family.

Much of the family line of William and Ann Gray Harkness are in possession of the writer as well, as research has overlapped into that family, so close was the relationship and the homes of each family in the early days. Many of this family moved to Salem, Washington County, N. Y., also continuing their migrations to Ohio. In Ohio both families, James and Nancy Gray Harkness and those of William and Ann Gray Harkness, moved to towns that were within reasonable distance of each other.

It would appear that the descendants of each group migrated almost at the same time. Pelham, to Salem, Ohio, to Illinois and then a complete "spread out" throughout the west.

At this time of writing all trails indicate that the original James Harkness and William Harkness, who married Nancy Gray and Ann Gray, are brothers and a strong possibility that they may have been twin brothers.

It is expected to be proven that John and Margaret Harkness will be found to be the Father and Mother of James and William. Margaret's last name is not known at this time, but she was born 1690 and died Pelham, Mass., April 8th, 1772, aged 82 years.

Any printed material that indicates the family landed at Boston in 1710 is not correct. It is August 4, 1718.

Research has not been progressed into North Ireland by the Author, except in a most casual manner.

History has also recorded that James Harkness, (who married Nancy Gray) was a Colonial serving for a short time with the British Troops, during the French and Indian War, in 1757.

The Committee of Correspondence was composed of "Patriots" and they operated as an unofficial Government, on a "Local" basis, but were generally interlocked throughout the Colonies. Members, when the British could locate them, were jailed.

It is recorded that James Harkness (who married Nancy Gray) attended a meeting of the Committee of Correspondence on October 3, 1774 at Pelham, Mass.

There must be no confusion between the James Harkness who married Elizabeth Edson, as he too was a Minute Man, but was the son of William and Ann Gray Harkness.

The record shown on this page is opportunity for future research scholars to review the Genealogical data in the publications of these Societies, as the applications filed for membership will indicate the family lines on many to 1952.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The first part of the history of the United States is the history of the colonies. The colonies were founded by Englishmen who had come to America in search of a better life. They were at first dependent on England for everything they needed, but as they grew in number and power, they began to assert their independence. They fought the Revolutionary War and won, and so became a free and independent nation.

The second part of the history of the United States is the history of the early years of the nation. The new nation was at first a weak and divided one, but it grew in strength and unity as it went on. It fought the War of 1812 and won, and so became a more powerful and respected nation.

The third part of the history of the United States is the history of the present. The United States has become a great and powerful nation, and it is now one of the leading nations of the world. It has a large and growing population, and it has a strong and stable government.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm blanket I had been sitting under. I looked up at the sky, which was a pale, hazy blue. The air was still, and the silence was broken only by the distant hum of traffic. I took a deep breath, feeling the cool air fill my lungs. The world around me seemed so quiet, yet so full of life. I walked towards the building, my steps echoing on the pavement. The architecture was modern, with clean lines and large windows. I entered the building, and the warmth of the interior greeted me. The receptionist smiled at me, and I followed her to my room. The room was spacious and bright, with a large bed and a desk. I sat on the bed, looking out the window at the city below. The sun was just rising, and the city was waking up. I felt a sense of peace and tranquility. It was a new beginning, and I was ready to embrace it.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Your letter of July 29th just reached me about a week ago, forwarded from W. E. L. House at 30 Prince Arthur Avenue, Toronto. The office there, closes for the summer months as a rule, which no doubt explains the delay in your letter reaching me.

I am summering on this spot, but my permanent address is 1247 King St. West, Toronto 3, Ont. I expect to go to the city for a few days the end of this month, and I shall look up my files and

~~and~~ be glad to furnish you with what data I have.

A few years ago I tried very hard to trace the Ross family, especially to find out who was the father of William Ross who's family bible you have. So far I have drawn a blank. Can you furnish this information?

I was able to become a U. E. L. member of Toronto Branch through my grandmother Ross who was a Williams of Fredericksburg and of a Loyalist family.

I visited Scotland in June 1957. and while there I paid a visit to Balnagowan Castle,

Ross-shire, and was very graciously received by Lady Dorothy Ross, who died in the Fall of that same year. Lady Dorothy took me on a tour of the castle, and I assure you, that was a "red letter" day for me.

I resigned from the post of Secretary of A. E. S. in the Spring of 1957 and am now, more or less, a lady of leisure. I knew of your connection with Bay of Quivite Br.

you on your connection with

I shall be very glad to hear from you at your early convenience.

WOODSWORTH—ROSS

PICTON— The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Luther Ross on the Bloomfield-Wellington road was the scene of an interesting wedding on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 23, when their daughter, Miss Jean Eleanor Ross of St. Catharines, became the bride of Mr. Kenneth Chown Woodsworth, B.A., of Toronto, son of the Rev. Harold Woodsworth, D.D., and Mrs. Woodsworth of Kobe, Japan. The ceremony was performed at high noon by the Rev. J. G. McKee, pastor of the United Church, Wellington. The attractive bride made a pretty picture in her wedding gown of white lace made on princess lines with short train. Her veil was caught with pearl bands and she carried a shower bouquet of pale pink butterfly roses. Miss Claire Ross, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a gown of pink taffeta made on princess lines and carried a bouquet of deep pink roses. Mr. David Woodsworth of Toronto, brother of the groom, was best man and the wedding music was played by Miss Daisy Chown of Kingston, aunt of the groom. A reception followed the ceremony when a buffet luncheon was served. Later Mr. and Mrs. Woodsworth left by motor for a trip to New York City. 12.24.37

The Clan of Ross

Clan Pipe Music:— "Spaidsearachd Iarla Ros."

(March) "The Earl of Ross's March."

Badge:— Aiteann. Juniper.

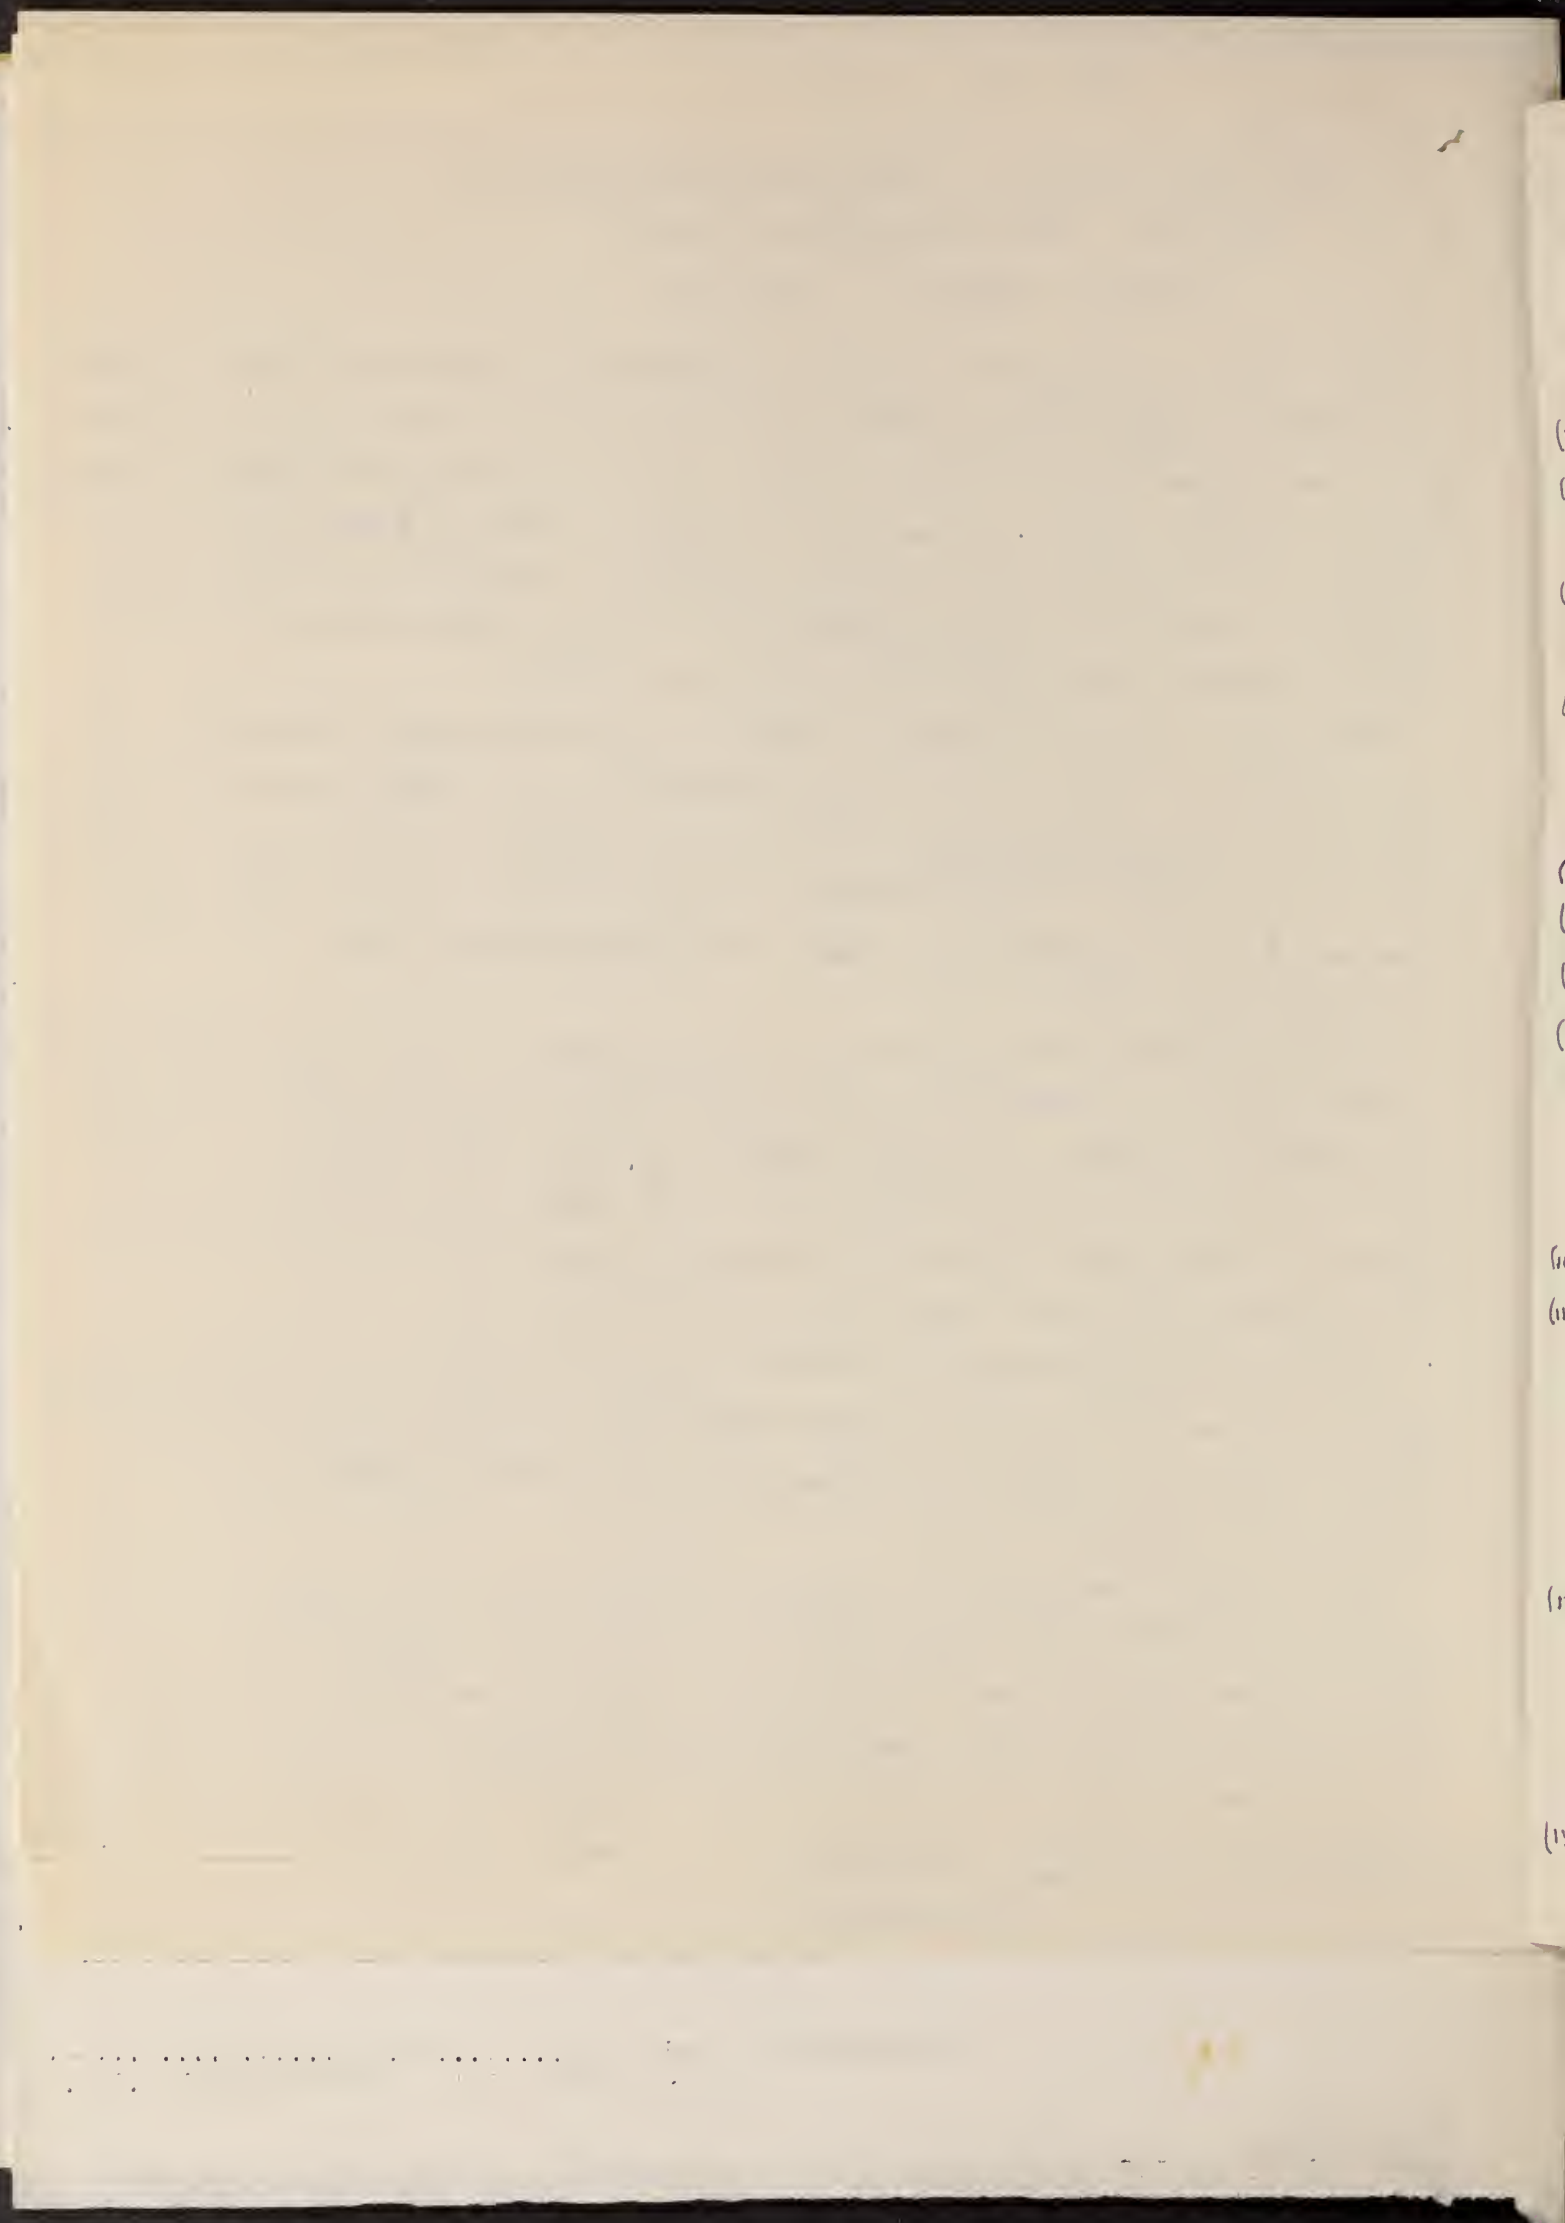

This tribe is designated by the Highlanders as the CLAN ANRIAS, which is altogether different from their name, as in a similar way, the Robertsons are called the Clan Donnachie. In the ancient genealogical history they are called "Clan Anrias," and it begins with Paul Mac Tire, to whom William, Earl of Ross, Lord of Skye, granted a charter for the lands of Gairloch in 1366, witnessed by Alexander, Bishop of Ross, Herqone, brother of Earl William, Henry the Seneschal, and others.

Robertson mentions that in the Earl of Haddington's Collections he met with an entry in the reign of Alexander II., dated about 1220, of a "charter to Ferquhard Ross, of the Earldom of Ross." This Ferquhard, he adds, was called MACANT-SAGART, or the Priest's son, and has, with reason, been supposed to be the son of Gille Anrias, from whom the clan took its name.

He founded the Abbey of Kearn, in Ross-shire, in the reign of Alexander II. His son, Earl William, was one of the Scottish nobles who, under Alexander III., bound themselves to make no peace with England in which the Prince and chiefs of Wales were not included. This line ended in Euphemia, Countess of Ross, who became a nun, and resigned the Earldom of Ross to her uncle, John, Earl of Buchan.

The Rosses of Balnagowan were a very ancient line, as they sprang from William, Earl of Ross, a great patriot and steady friend of Robert I. His son, Earl Hugh, was killed at Halidon Hill, fighting for his King and country, in 1333.

The ancient Rosses of Balnagowan failed, and by an usual circumstance the estate came, by purchase, to another family of the same name, the Lords Ross of Hawkhead, an old and very honourable branch of the clan, which failed on the death of George, Twelfth Lord Ross, in 1754, at Ross House, and of his son, the Master, at Mount Terriot, when his title went to the Earls of Glasgow.

The line of Balnagowan is thus given in 1729 by George Crawford, Historiographer for Scotland, and other authorities.

- (1,2) Hugh Ross, second son of Hugh, Earl of Ross, married the heiress of
 (3) Balnagowan, and was succeeded by William, second Lord of Balnagowan, who married a daughter of the Lord Livingstone. Their son
 (4) William married Catharine, the daughter of Paul MacTear. She was the heiress of Strathcarron, Strathoykel, and Forstray.

- (5) Hugh, third Laird of Balnagowan, married Lady Janet, daughter of the Earl of Sutherland, and had by her John, his heir, and William Ross of Little Allan and Coulmaki, predecessor of the Rosses of Shandwick.

- (6) John, fourth of Balnagowan, married a daughter of Torquil MacLeod of the Lewes. Their son Alexander married a lady of the Duffus
 (7) family, and had "Sir David Ross, who married Helen of Inverurie,
 (8) daughter to Marischal's predecessor, by whom he had Walter, his son and heir, and William who was the root of Rosses of Invercharron and its branches. The said Walter married Mary, daughter of James Grant of Freuchry, Laird of Grant."

- (10) Their son Alexander was twice married. First, to Jean, daughter of
 (11) George Earl of Caithness, by whom he had George, his successor; second, to Katherine, daughter of Mackenzie of Kintail, by whom he had a son Nicholas, the first of the line of Pitcalnie. He died in 1591.

- George, sixth of Balnagowan, married Marjorie, daughter of Sir John Campbell of Cawdor, with "a tocher of 3000 merks" in 1572. They
 (12) had a daughter, married to the Laird of Kintail, and a son, "David the loyal," who married Mary, Lord Lovat's daughter. He died at Windsor Castle after the Restoration, and Charles II bestowed upon him and his heirs forever a pension of 4000 merks Scots, yearly.

- (13) David, the last Laird of Balnagowan, married Lady Ann Stewart, daughter of the Earl of Murray, and dying without issue, conveyed his estate to Brigadier Charles Ross, son of George, tenth Lord Ross of Hawkhead, by his second wife, Lady Jean Ramsay, daughter to the Earl of Dalhousie.

The Brigadier was an officer of high military reputation and in 1729 was Colonel of the old 5th Royal Irish Horse raised in 1688, and disbanded after the Rebellion of 1798.

Ross of Pitcalnie is supposed to represent the ancient line of Balnagowan, the present Baronets of Balnagowan being in reality Lockharts.

In 1745 the fighting force of the clan was 500 men

The obituary notices for August 1884 contain the death of "Mr. George Ross of Pitcalnie, in Ross-shire, and Arnot, in Kincardine, aged eighty-one. Deceased was the last representative of the ancient Earls of Ross, and was chief of the Clan Ross." He was succeeded by a grand-nephew.

Dear Sir:

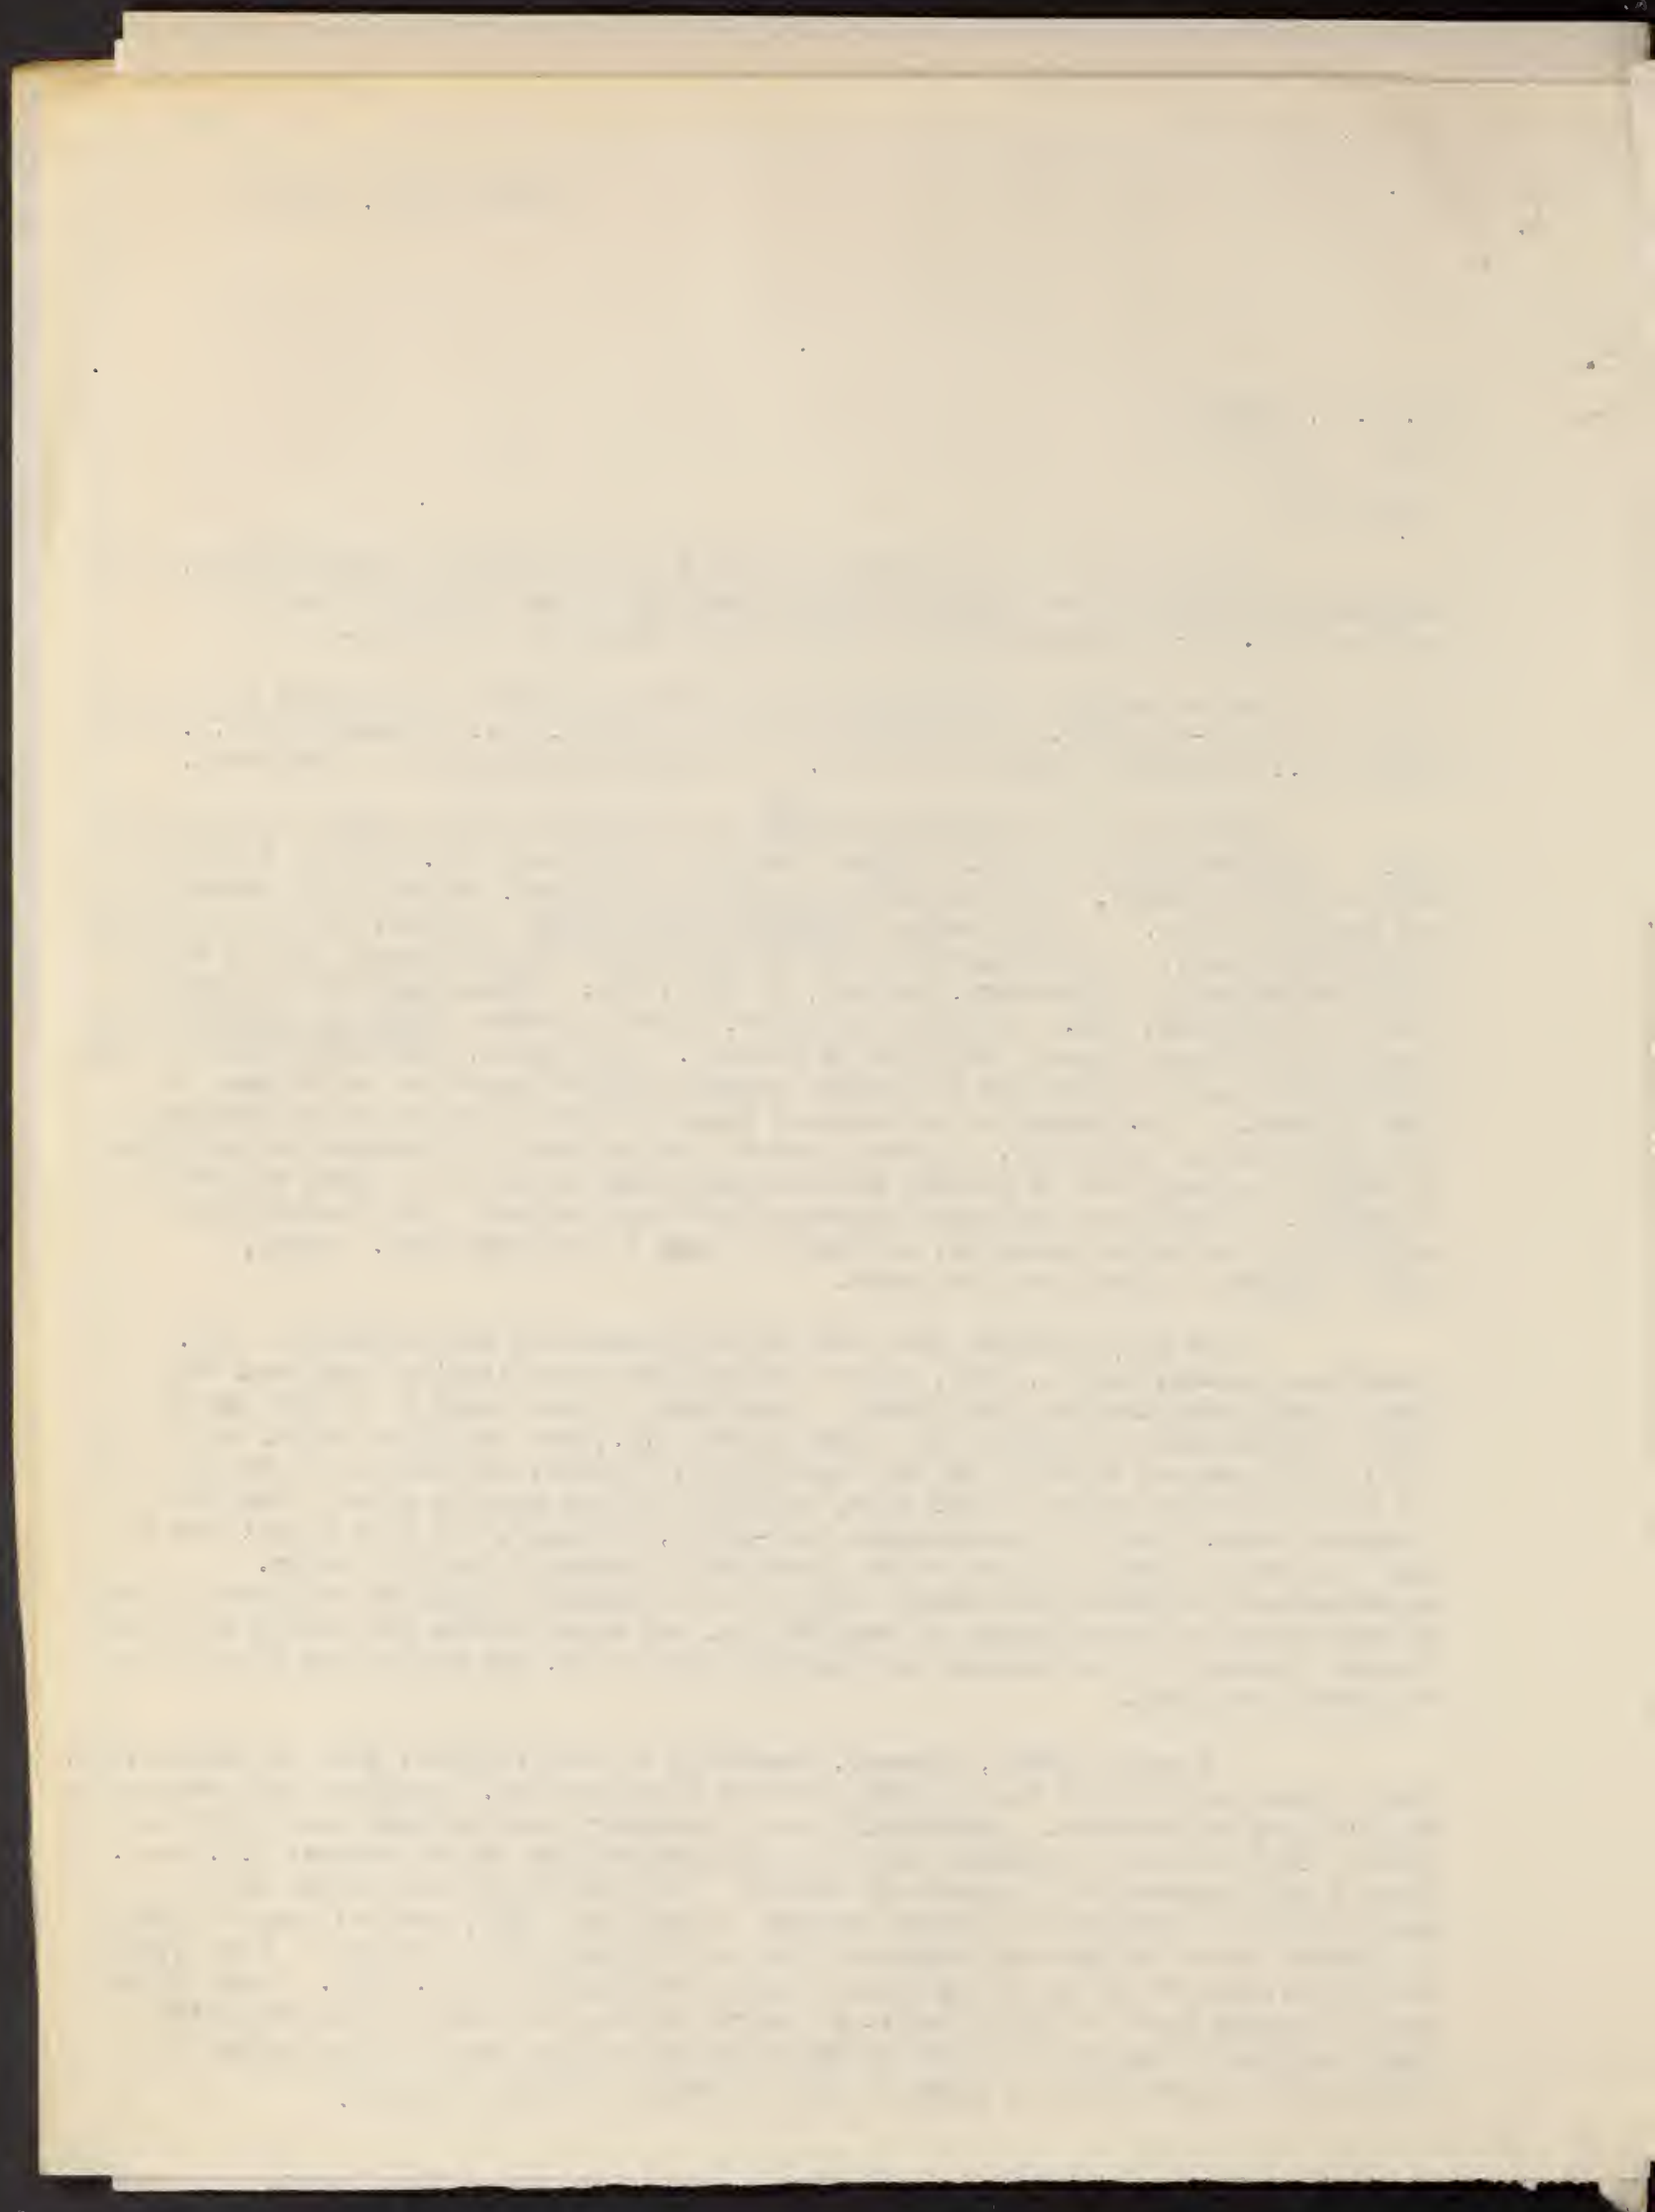

I cannot begin to tell you how pleased I was when your letter of Nov. 17th reached me, giving me so much valuable information re the "Rosses", and I am enclosing $5.00 - a fee for which I feel I have received full value.

Let me jot down a few things which I think might be of interest to you. First of all " - Item No. 21 referred to in your letter, viz. Statement of H.A. Lewis, Bath, Ont., re Rosses living on Lot No. 2 in the 2nd Concession of Ernesttown."

Alexander and Daniel Ross living^{ed} on adjoining farms on these lots one and two. Alexander, as you know, married Margaret Williams Mar. 2/1812, but there were not any children. Daniel married Sarah Ann Williams, and they had seven boys and two girls, viz. John, Joseph, Alexander, (my father) Robert, Albert, William, Margaret and Mary. My father was the only one of the sons to marry, and he married Rachel ~~of~~ Shephard of Coventry, England, at Bath, Ont. There were four children, from this marriage, viz., Kenneth Alexander, Nora Williams, Sarah Ann Ethel, (Myself) and Katrina Frances (Cassy) who died in infancy. My father, Alexander Ross died in Kingston on April 19/1922 and my mother, Rachel Shephard Ross died in Toronto on June 28/1928. Mr. Lewis was not correct when he stated that my father Alexander Ross was a son of Alexander. He was a son of Daniel, but as Alexander did not have any sons, he brought up my father, who for many years lived on his farm next door to Daniel. Now I hope this will clear up this item for you. My father always referred to his Uncle Alexander, as "Uncle Sandy", who died Sept. 7/1865, aged 77 years, 6 months and five days.

Now about Walter Ross and his eight sons and two daughters, viz. Alexander, Walter, Daniel, John, Robert, Joseph (one name missing) and Aunt Polly (Mary) and a daughter who died young. Many times I have heard my father and my Uncle William refer to cousins who lived in the U.S., and the names Walter and William Wallace are familiar to me; and my Aunt Margaret referred to above, had all our family history at her finger tips, and said that we were in direct line from Alexander Ross, Laird of Balnagowan, Ross-shire, Scotland, and back from there to Hugh Ross of Rariches, 2nd son of the last Earl of Ross of the old family. Unfortunately my sister and myself have not any records to which we can refer. When we were young we were careless of such things, and when we were old enough to value "family lineage" all our uncles and aunts had passed on, and now we are doing a lot of wishful thinking.

It would appear, however, according to your records, that my grandfather, Daniel Ross was a son of Walter Ross, who was a son of Capt. Alexander Ross who was in Wolfe's army of invasion. Evidently Capt. Alexander Ross had more than one son. Item 19 says "his son Alexander (sic) was the grandfather of the subject W.W. Ross". Would this Alexander be a brother of Walter? In item 18 you say Walter Ross was married to Catharine Williams Ross-ef in the year 1790, and yet Item 9 shows Alexander, son of Walter and Catharine Ross of Marysburg was baptized 8 June 1788, and Walter, son of Walter & Catharine Ross was baptized 16 Jan. 1791. Could it be that Alexander Ross, or Uncle Sandy, as he was known, was a son of one of Walter Ross' brothers? Anyhow, it would appear that Daniel Ross was a son of Walter and Catharine Williams Ross, as items 14 and 15 refer to "Uncle Daniel".

I quote a letter received by my father, Alexander Ross, from his cousin, Dr. Alexander Milton Ross of Toronto, dated April 17th, 1892.

"Dear Cousin:

I wish to present you with a book, and would thank you to tell me your nearest express office. I would be pleased to know how many of Uncle Daniel's family are now living at the old home. Is your mother still living, and when Aunt Peggy died. Is Charlotte still living." unquote.

The Aunt Peggy referred to is the Margaret Williams who married Alexander Ross (Uncle Sandy) in 1812. All I know of Charlotte is that she lived at the old farm - was unmarried, and was likely a sister or aunt of Daniel and/or Alexander. I do not remember her - only from hearsay.

Dr. Alexander Milton Ross was a son of William Ross and a great grandson of Capt. Alexander Ross. His father, William Ross, married Frederika Grant, youngest daughter of John Grant of the British army, who died of wounds at Niagara in the war of 1712-14. William Ross was a son of Hannah Prudence Williams, descendant of Roger Williams (1595-1683) the famous liberal preacher and apostle of freedom of Rhode Island. I do not know the Christian name of his father, the husband of Hannah Prudence Williams.

Note: The above information taken from the "Cyclopaedia of Canadian Biography by Rose, Febr. 1/1912, at Reference Library, Toronto - Shelf No. 920-071 R 59, Vol.2.

This William Ross cannot be a son of Walter Ross, because you say that Walter Ross married Catharine Williams, whereas William Ross's mother was Hannah Prudence Williams.

Well Dr. Burleigh, by the time you have read this far, your head will likely be whirling - mine is just about at that stage, so I guess I had better call a halt.

If I can be of any further assistance to you in completing your Ross records, please let me know, and if you can find the time, and care to delve further into the history of this family, I shall be glad to have you do so, and shall be glad also to pay you for this service.

Again thanking you, I remain,

Yours very truly,

(Miss)

Ethel Ross

Dear Sir:

For some time I have been trying to establish my United Empire Loyalists descent, and also to trace back into family tree records, (viz. the Ross family) and it has been suggested that I write to you as you have done some research work on the Ross line.

My grandfather, Daniel Ross, and his brother Alexander Ross lived on adjoining farms in Fredericksburg - lots Nos. 1 and 2, Concession 2. The original grants of land by the Crown of these two farms were made to Robert Perry in 1803, and William Rogers in 1804, respectively. The Ross brothers, Daniel and Alexander took possession of these two farms in 1823 and 1828. I do not know whether they came over from the U.S. at that time, or whether they lived in Prince Edward County or Belleville prior to purchasing the above lots.

On Mar. 2/1812, Alexander Ross married Margaret Williams, daughter of John Williams the Elder of Fredericksburg, a Loyalists. My grandfather, Daniel Ross, married Sarah Ann (Williams, also, I believe) and this is what I am trying to find out. I have written Ottawa asking for a copy of the Census of Lennox & Addington for period 1851-61 hoping that perhaps I might glean some information from it.

Dr. Alexander Milton Ross the well known author and scientist, (born in Belleville, Ont. December 13/1832, married Hester F. Herrington in 1857, died Oct. 27/1897,) was a son of William Ross of Belleville, and a nephew of my grandfather, Daniel Ross. I am advising you of this in case you have any record of this branch of the family to tie in with my family line.

Dear Mr Burleigh,

The writer has just returned from vacation and has activated the
the Genealogy again.

Amherst

I visted only the area area of ~~Amherst~~-Pelham- Northampton Mass for research in connection the Harkness branch of the family. I was very successful there, although there is a great deal more of research required.

I jsut finished two more of the photostats on the Ross'ss for your records. These two seem to apply to the Alexander Ross you listed with Colin, and Walter also Thomas. Presumbably they are all brothers. What does M. C. mean? Is it Military Cross, a decoration?.

I have a few more to do for you but these will reach you soon.

I spent 5 days in Bermuda but should have stayed there longer. I had been there before but by steamer years ago before the autos on the Island. They have amde a great change there. I flew both ways this time and its amazing how quickly one can reach it now.

Sincerely,

TO HIS EXCELLENCY FRANCIS CORE, Lt. Governor of the Province of Upper Canada
Canada.

In council

May it please Your Excellency,

In obedience to your Excellency's order of reference to us, to report upon the petition of ~~Alexander~~ Ross late of the 84th Reg't.

Alexander

We have to state to Your Excellency, that the Lot No. 27 South of Black River has been located and described for Alexander Ross under Governor Hamilton's certificate this lot contains 270 Acres

A warrant of survey ~~has~~ also been lodged in this office, in the name of Alexander
Ross M. C. for 300 Acres of land, including former Grants the order in Council is dated 30 August 1797.

This order is intended to cover the Lot No. 70 in 3rd. concession of Ameliaburgh, reckoned from the Bay of Quinte, which contains 200 hundred Acres----- upon the Quebec Plan of this Township, the lot has been reckoned as vacant, but on the Schedule thereof
, the late deputy surveyor of the Midland District, has penciled the name of Alexander Ross for it.

But according to the order in council on warrant above quoted, for 300 hundred acres including former grants, there appears to be only 30 acres remaining for the petitioner to locate.

All of which is humbly submitted to Your Excellency's wisdom

Dear Mr Burleigh,

Enclosed are two more copies of the material I got from Mr Lamb in Ottawa. One of these should have been attached to one of the copies I sent the last time namely the one about Alexander Ross.

I think this completes them but if I come across anymore Ross material I'll be glad to send you copies as I amke them for myself.

The last few weeks all my energies have been with the Harkness branch but soon I'll become active with the Ross's.

Best regards

Dear Mr Burleigh,

Thanks very much for your letter of the 29th.

Boston

I am going on vacation this week the 7th am going to Mass./to the New England Historical Library then to Pelham, Mass also to Salem, N. Y. the latter deal with the Harkness Branch. Then I am going to visit Saratoga and then Johnstown for what I can find about the Ross's if anything. Maybe I'll find some Williams records.

Attached are two of the copies I promised but I have ~~far~~ more to do so you'll get these later. In one I havent done yet and its quite a long one is the following on the Petition of Alexander Ross " This order is ~~intended~~ intended to cover the lot 70 in Conc. 3 of Ameliasburgh reckoned from the Bay of Quinte, which contains 200 hundred acres." Presumbaly this is near the Ross Cemetary.

One of the attached confirms Alex. Ross with the 84th Regt. but it seem strange he would be asking for 100 acres in 1797. ~~Does~~ It seems to conflict with the data you sent some time ago. The other one sent with this letter it staes that the Alex. Ross of Lancaster was a son of Thomas Ross. It may be a ~~stat~~ wrong but the only Capt. Ross I could find at the Plains Of Abraham was a Capt. Thomas Ross who was with the 78th Regt. Fraser's . My family records show his name as Alexander but maybe this is my lead to the Capt.

This Ross situation has me thoroughly confused at times. I have been quite successful with the Harkness branch, in fact a few days ago I made a contact with one of the Harkness people here in N. Y. confirming the relationship. This is the first time anyone in my family has contacted them in almost one hundred years.

If I cant do it any other way I wonder if you would kindly do some thing for me? I'll write to every Ross in Prince Edward County even if it takes me ten years. If you could tear out a sheeet from the local phone book when no one is looking I could use it for addresses. Would you mail it to me? Dont get caught. Ha. Ha.

I havent heard anymore from Lady Dorothy Ross and guess that lead is is finished..

Later on I'll contact the diferent registry offices you suggested.

I ~~don~~ want to ~~thank~~ ^{thank} you for your courtesy again and hope that the information I find will help complete some of your files too.

Dear Mr Burliegh,

I do, hope that this letter does not offend you but am writing it only as a precaution against any possible expenses.

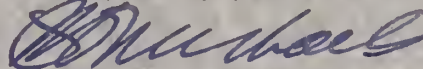

Should be there any costs involved in connection with the research it is impossible for me to pay it. That is the reason I made a remark in Lady Ross's letter too.

You have been most kind in helping me and I do not want you to extend yourself where costs are involved.

I do hope that you find Lady Ross's letter of interest that I sent yesterday.

Wishing you the best of health, I am

Very truly yours

Dear Mr Burleigh,

Thank you for permitting me to send your letter to Lady Ross, in Scotland.

Attached is a copy of her letter to me and I hope you will find of interest. Included too is a copy of the letter that I wrote yesterday to her.

I am hoping that by her personal influence in certain circles of the proper places of research will ~~be~~ reveal the necessary details that we require.

Even though the information is not forth coming I'll keep on trying until I do get the background of Capt. Alexander Ross.

I trust that my phone call to you did not inconvenience your family. It was very pleasant to speak to you.

May I thank you again for your interest and kindnesses in my behalf.

MAY 11th, 1950

Dear Sir,

Your letter of April 8th, addressed to Sir Charles Ross, has been received by me. Charles Sir Charles Ross, who was the ninth Baronet, died in America in 1942. He was the last of the Chiefs of the Clan Ross.

In the seventeen hundreds the Clan Ross was the 500 strong. Doubtless your great Grand Father Capt. Alexander Ross, was a member of the Clan.

With regard to the actual Rosses of Balnagown, you will find the correct genealogy of the family in either Burke's Peerage, or Debrett's Peerage prior to his death. Since when, as he was the last of the Rosses the Baronetcy has become extinct, as there were no heirs.

You should be able to find these Peerage's in the New York Library(Public) If not, contact the British Consul General in New York, or the British Embassy in Washington, D. C. or you could write directly to the Publisher's:- For

Ross Genealogy

Your Ladyship,

May I express my deepest appreciation for your letter of May 11th in to the above subject. I must admit that I never expected a reply and I shall never forget your courtesy. My belief in human nature has risen one hundred percent.

As you suggested I visited the New York Library on 5th Ave here and reviewed the books mentioned in your letter, for the parts that deal with the Ross family. I found the account of Sir Charles and your self on page 699 in Debrett's Peerage reading in part as follows quote "Ross, creation (N. S.) 1672 of Carstairs Co. Lanark etc etc" In Burke's and also there were portions that read similar to other publications that I have scanned. Cockayne's The information seemed to cover the principles rather than the actual line. Thus they do not really cover what I had hoped for.

Shortly after I wrote, I had the good fortune to make contact with Mr H. C. Burliegh, President of the Upper Canada Genealogical Society who has kindly offered to assist me with the research in Canada in exchange for the notes, that I had already accumulated on the Ross family. He has been most helpful and generous with furnishing me with the background of the Ross family that I am interested. I am attaching a copy of his letter for your record as it portrays the details better than I, perhaps can do

Walter and Catherine Ross were the father and mother of Joseph Ross who was my great grand father. Walter his father died a few weeks before his birth. All of the old letters etc that I have had for many years confirm at least 90 per cent of Mr Burliegh's letter. We believe that the Alexander Ross whose name I have circled in ink is the father of of William, Walter and Colin and possibly the Capt. Alex. Ross whom I am searching. It is entirely possible that this Alexander Ross is a son of Capt. rather than the Capt. himself. The only Capt. Ross I could find in official Muster Roll of the period of 1759 is a Capt. ~~Alexander~~ Thomas Ross who was Fraser's 78th Reg. There was no Capt. Alexander Ross with the Black Watch at that time. I wrote to the Public Record Office, Chancery Lane, London, W. C. 2 but never recieved a reply regarding his Regimental history.

The name Harkness may be familiar to you, as it is a branch of the Harkness Family who are very wealthy and large stock holders in the Standard Oil Co. and have done great philanthropic work here in New York City and elsewhere. The relationship is very distant but it does exist. The difference between the writer and the Harknesses is that " I must work to live ". They do not have the slightest idea that I am alive or working on this genealogy. This family arrived in America in Mass. in the year 1710.

Mr Wm. Kaye Lamb, Dominion Archivist in Ottawa has been quite helpful but even with his office staff of Historians I have found nothing about The Capt. Alexander Ross, and yet he is the one that this genealogy centers.

In reference to the Ross's of Balnagown Castle. This information reached the Rosses in this country by personal mail in the 19th Century from our Canadian Cousins who were living at that time. There is a chance that they were not directly connected with the Castle but so far as the history unfolds from the research, the details found have authenticated the family record. So I lean to the fact that Ross Line we are associated are truly in some way linked to Balnagown.

Dear Dorothy

Your letter

May I express my deepest appreciation for your letter of May 1st in to the above subject. I must admit that I never expected a reply and I shall never forget your courtesy. My belief in human nature has been reinforced.

As you suggested I visited the New York Library on May 1st and revisited the books mentioned in your letter. For the first time I felt the home family. I found the account of Sir Charles and your wife on page 233 in Penguin's edition of "The House of the Seven Gables" (1951) by Nathaniel Hawthorne. The book is a masterpiece of the American novel and I am glad to hear that you are interested in it. The information seemed to cover the whole story rather than the actual facts. They do not really cover what I had hoped for.

Shortly after I wrote you I had the good fortune to make contact with Mr. L.
C. Burleigh, President of the United States Genealogical Society, who has kindly offered to assist me with the research in exchange for the notes, but I had already accumulated on the "family" side. He has been most helpful and generous with information and with the background of the family. I am interested. I am attaching a copy of his letter for your record as it contains the details better than I, perhaps can do.

My father and mother were the father and mother of Joseph Rose who was my great-grandfather. He was a farmer and a teacher. He was born in 1811 of the old family and I have had for many years a collection of about 50 per cent of Mr. Burleigh's letter. He believes that the Americans have been divided in the last 100 years of of William, John and John and possibly the Capt. Alex. Rose when I am searching. It is possible that John Alexander Rose is a son of Capt.
John Rose the Capt. himself. The only Rose I could find in official United States of the period of 1774 is a Capt. Alexander Thomas Rose who was Rose's 7th son.
There are no Capt. Alexander Rose in the United States at that time. I wrote to the Public Record Office, London, W. C. 2 but never received a reply regarding the historical history.

The name Rose may be familiar to you, as it is a branch of the Rose-tree family who are very well known and large stock holders in the Standard Oil Co. and have done great philanthropic work in New York City and elsewhere. The relationship is very distant but it does exist. The difference between the writer and the Rose is that "I want to live" - they do not have the slightest idea that I am alive or writing on this genealogy. This family moved in America in 1831. In the year 1770.

Mr. L. C. Burleigh, President of the United States Genealogical Society, has been very helpful but even with his office staff of 1000 he has been unable to find the Capt.
Alexander Rose, and yet he is the one who has the genealogy centers.

In reference to the house of Bainbridge Castle. The information received the house in the country of personal help in the 14th century from our Canadian Genealogy was living at that time. There is a chance that they were not directly connected with the Rose but as far as the history of the Rose family, the details found have been most helpful. I am to the fact that Rose we are associated are truly in some way linked to Bainbridge.

It is possible that I did not tell you in my first letter that Joseph Ross married a Mary Harkness in 1831.

I am not a professional genealogist and took up the work because the old records intrigued me and have carried it on as a hobby. No one on this ~~Atlantic~~ side of the Atlantic has ever been able to ~~xxxx~~ secure the background of this "Ross line" in the last one hundred years. (I mean of course this branch) The large part of my success is due to you Lady Ross, Mr Burliegh, and Mr Lamb in Ottawa. Incidentally I phoned Mr Burliegh in Bath, Ont. for his permission to mail his letter to you.

I really cant tell you how grateful I am for your interst and courtesy perhaps some day I will be able to thank you personally.

I dont know where to turn for further details on this Capt. Alex. Ross as I have tried every possible channel for information.

I am hopeful of beginning the editing in about six months or less.

With best personal regards, I am

Most gratefully yours

Paul Wallace Michaels

It is possible that I did not tell you in my first letter that Joseph had married a Mary H. in 1887.

I am not a professional genealogist and took up the work because the old records intrigued me and have carried it on as a hobby. No one on this side of the Atlantic has ever been able to trace the background of this "Red Light" in the last one hundred years. (I mean of course this branch) the large part of my success is due to my lady Rose, Mr. Burleigh, and the fact in October, incidentally I opened Mr. Burleigh in 1887, Oct. for his permission to tell his letter to you.

I really can't tell you how grateful I am for your interest and courtesy. Some day I will be able to thank you very much.

I don't know when to look for further details or when next. When I have tried every possible channel for information.

I am hopeful of beginning the telling in about six months or later.

With best personal regards, I am

Very cordially, yours

Ross Genealogy

Dear Mr Burleigh,

I hope that you will forgive me for intruding on your privacy but I just today rec'd fifteen photostats from Ottawa of original petitions for land by the above family. These cover only Alexander Ross and Zenas Ross. Only one was sent on Zenas Ross.

I took a clue from your recent article on the Ross Family that I am interested, namely that Lt. McDonnell was a teneat of Sir John Johnson at Johnstown, N. Y. I of course found that Sir John had a Scotch Contingent at his Fort during the Rev. War. I did this research because Catherine Williams Ross went to Saratoga or near there where she gave birth to Joseph Ross. He could not go to Saratoga unless she was well acquainted ther before or her family (Williams). Johnstown is only 30 miles from Saratoga and I assume she became friendly with Walter Ross then a Scotch Soldier.

In the photostats re'cd today from Ottawa one states Alexander Ross was a private soldier in Sir John~~son~~ Johnson's Corps. In the other petition singed by Alexander Ross it stated he was a member of the 84th Reg't petitions

These ~~petitions~~ are dated 1797. Others are dated 1808.

It is strange that they did not find any on Walter Ross.

My purpose in writing to you is that I thought perhaps you would like to have copies of these petitions. I must apologize but I doubt if I can send photostats as I am handicapped because of personal funds limtations. In the next few weeks I am going to type copies for myself and can send a set of these if you care to have them.

Mr Hambs office sent these to me gratuiously and they have been most kind as you have been.

It may be of interest to know that I have told the Ross family here that some of the biograhies of certain persons ~~in~~ here are not correct, namely that Capt. Alex. Ross of 1759 could not possibly have gotten lands in Prince ~~Edward~~ ~~County~~ Edward County. I have also have disproved other items with your help.

My I thank you again for yourpast courtesies in helping me.

Dear Mr Burliegh,

Please accept my apologies for bothering you again.

I was wondering if there might be a remote chance that the file you may have on the Williams family (Loyalist) might possibly give a clue of this Catherine Williams who married Walter Ross.

What seems to irritate me is that I can't make up my mind where he may have met her and then married her. His record that you sent about him being in the 84th shows he had a wife then. So it should follow if the Ross came from Quebec he must have met her in that area rather than Saratoga. Then too the Williams probably migrated from the States or Colonies prior to 1783 or so.

I am trying to get some information from Ottawa about passenger lists of ships about the period 1774 etc. about the Ross'es landing in Quebec. Perhaps he will find something.

Thank you for your patience

Sincerely

Ross Genealogy

My Lady,

In progressing the research of this Genealogy I made a special trip to Fremont, Ohio and while there I copied the attached from an old Commemorative book and I think you will find the contents of interest.

It will be seen that the Chaplain to Charles First was a Ross in our family line and also that there is direct reference to our association to Balnagown Castle.

I made another trip to the N. Y. Library and reviewed the books again without success.

Even though the record of this Capt Alexander Ross may be lost to history (Although I don't think so) I will have the personal satisfaction of knowing that the family record is at last on file with you which I have been hoping since I have been working on the research.

May I apologize for taking your time and thank you for your courtesy.

Dear Mr. Burleigh,

In preparation of the report of this branch I have a special duty to perform, and I think I should like to have your assistance in this regard. I think you will find the work of interest.
It will be seen that the branch is to be a part of the family and also that there is a direct connection to the family of the branch. I have written to the A. I. Society and received the book again.
I have also the report of the "A. I. Society" and I have to say (I think I am right) - this is the same as the report of the family secret is at last on the way. I have been waiting since I have been waiting on the secret.
My I believe you will find this and work you for your country.

FROM  THE COMMEMORATIVE BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD OF THE COUNTIES OF SANDUSKY, OHIO AND OTTAWA, OHIO
PRINTED IN Chicago, Ill by
J. H. Beers & Co. 1896

Subject- William Wallace Ross
(Son of Joseph and Mary Harkness Ross)
(Wm. Wallace Ross was a brother of Mary Ross who was the Grandmother of P. W. M.)

Professor W. W. Ross Superintendent of Public Schools, Fremont, Ohio Sandusky County and one of the oldest established and most widely known schoolmen in Ohio was born in Medina County, Ohio December 24th, 1824.

The Ross family is descended from ancient and time honored Scottish blood. Our subject's great grandfather Capt. Alexander Ross was an officer in Gen. Wolfe's Army of Invasion and took part in the battle of the Plains of Abraham, which resulted in the defeat of the French and the conquest of all Canada, received a grant of Lands from the Crown, and settled in Prince Edward County, Upper Canada, in 1785, where he lived until his death in 1805.

According to his Canadian Cousins (W. W. Ross) the Genealogy of the Family can be traced as follows. " Capt. Ross was a grandson of Alexander Ross, Laird of Balnagown, Ross-Shire Scotland who descended in direct line from Hugh Ross of Rairches, who was second son of Hugh, the sixth and last Earl of Ross of the old family. " The fifth Earl of Ross led the Ross-Shire clans on the Field of Battle of Bannockburn.

In the Ancestral line was Reverend Alexander Ross of Aberdeen, Scotland, Chaplain to Charles the First, of England, and a distinguished scholar and author of many religious works, both in English and Latin.

When Capt. Ross received the Grant of Lands in Canada, he took his family from the Highlands of Scotland in Ross-Shire ~~to live there~~ to live there. His son Alexander (Should be Walter. PWM) was the grandfather of the subject W. W. Ross. He Alexander (Walter not Alexander) was born in Rosshire in the Scottish Highlands not far from the Castle of MacBeth, before the family went to Canada. It is said that he spent most of his time on the Estate of his father in Canada near Picton, Prince Edward County, Ontario.

Mary Harkness the mother of our subject was born in Salem, Washington County N. Y. in 1806. She removed to eastern Ohio about the same time ~~as her~~ as her cousins of the same ~~time~~ name (Harkness) who settled a little farther west (Bellevue, Ohio note PWM) and who eventually became multi millionaire's founders of the Standard Oil Co..

William Wallace Ross married in 1863 to Julia Houghton. Mr Ross was a ~~Mason~~ Mason

The Grandfather of W. W. Ross was not Alexander as Obituary's and other family records prove his father's name was Walter Ross as other material in this genealogy states.

Dr. H. C. Burleigh,

Dear Sir:

We have your letter of the 23rd instant
re the Ross family.

A very thorough search has failed to reveal the members of the Ross family in Prince Edward County with the exception of one United Empire Loyalist book, the data from which we are enclosing. Also, our Atlas of Hastings and Prince Edward County 1878 mentions one Walter Ross, Jr., of Picton, merchant, native of Canada, and year of settlement in Canada, 1847.

Neither the "Pioneer Life of Bay of Quinte" including genealogies of old families and biographical sketches, nor the Church Register, Picton 1810 - 1837, records any "Ross" names.

There are a great number of Rosses in Glengarry County and some in Grenville. Do you think some of your Ross family might have settled there? If you could give us any more definite information as to their location, I think we could furnish you with further data. We are enclosing two fiats which might interest you as the names are the same as two you mentioned.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr Burleigh,

I need not tell you that I am most grateful for the letter of May 9th detailing the Ross account. Frankly I had almost reached the stage where I thought that I would never secure the information. Believe me your courtesy is more than appreciated.

I know how you must have felt when you got the enclosed letters. When I look back I don't know how I ever ~~had~~ got the ambition to do all the copy work.

I want to apologize for not sending all the material the first time. I am afraid that I was over anxious to write. Perhaps it is well for me to give you a little background of my research as you did for me in your letter. When I started to do this I did not have the slightest idea how to do it but I had made my mind up to progress it at all costs. The worry, anticipation, sleepless nights and trying to coordinate the material was almost inhuman. The letters and records were most all contradictory as you have seen.

I had to contact my cousins, Clara Ross Stull in Fremont, Ohio, Harry Ross in Toledo, Ohio (both of these are the children of William Wallace Ross son of Joseph Ross) and also Grace Ross Worst in Cody, Wyo. the latter a daughter of Zachary Ross a son of Joseph Ross. I went to Fremont last December ~~and~~ on my vacation and read letters from morning to night. There are still letters in the Barn that I did not have the time to read. The Stull home in Fremont is really an estate and was owned originally by Zachary Ross and has been in the family for over 50 years. Attached hereto are a few copies of letters that will corroborate part of the material you sent to me. All of my cousins are well over 70 years while the writer is 44 and a veteran of the last War with service in England, during the hostilities.

Seville Ohio is the town where the Ross's went before going to Fremont, O. Mary Harkness was from Pelham, Mass and Salem and went from Salem N. Y. to join her Parents in Seville, O and on the way stopped at Camillus? N. Y. in 1830. In Camillus she met Joseph Ross who was working there as a tanner and living with his mother's people. They became friendly and fell in love and Joseph Ross accompanied her to Seville via Niagara Falls and boat on Lake Erie in 1830. They were married in the spring of 1831 in Medina, Ohio a town next to Seville. There is where my Grandmother Mary Ross was born. How the other Ross's got there I have found no record whatever except that perhaps John Ross followed but how the ~~Ross~~ did Walter and his family get there. I don't know. This Walter of course should be the son of the Walter in your paper. I did find in the History Of Medina County the following "Page 481 In reference to the Baptist Church that was organized in 1838 7th of July-JOHN ROSS an aged Englishman donated $1000.00 to this Church with which the present parsonage was built and surrounding grounds purchased." End of quote. We Ross'es living today have no contact with the Rosses of Lakato although I have old tin-type album showing pictures of Walter Ross and Elizabeth Ross (Foster).

On the letters that I am forwarding I have made notes to help clarify them. One confirms that William Ross was a bachelor while another gives a partial list of the children of Walter and Catherine Ross. The name Polly enters a number of times but I am not too sure what the nickname means. Note that in the letters the Rosses themselves did not know their own family or at least partially. That is certainly unusual and one reason I am losing so much weight. The Inter-Ocean magazine or paper and the heirs etc. I don't give much credence as I know now that the name Ross is like the name ~~is~~ Smith. I am more interested in the Genealogy. I am beginning to think that Capt. Alex. Ross was never at the Plains of Abraham, as my mother used to say he was in the Black Watch and as far as Mr Lamb's staff can find the Black Watch never got nearer than Ticonderoga, N. Y. ~~with~~ or Fort Edward with General Amherst in June 1759 they ~~had~~ got to Quebec in time to be there in Sept. but I don't think so. had to

I can't see why the person who made Joseph's obituary stated they came from Scotland etc. if they knew they were already here in the Colonies. That is where I went wrong in believing that ~~your~~ article. It makes a great deal more sense after reading your paper, that they were U. E. and the letters attached confirm your research.

I notice the remarks about further reasearch and wonder if you could give me the people to write to in Toronto, and I will write to them. Mr Lamb of course in Ottawa knows of me very well, and probably wishes he didn't.

I told my cousins that you and Mr Lewis were very kind in helping me and they wish to convey their thanks to you. The work of those seven pages of materail was certainly very generaous, and also the map you drew.

I dont get my vacation until November but if you,dont mind I'd like to visit that area and perhaps see you both. I dont own a car but I'd get around though..

Perhaps in the letters that I am sending you will "see" something, that ~~without~~ my untrained mind in this work doesn't see.

I do all the work on this genealogy after hours from business and some timesdont retire until after midnight, and also have lost weekends doing the work. I do wish to thank you again and again Mr Burleighfor your courtesy.

I hope I dont bother you too much.

ROSS GENEALOGY

The following letter received from Clara Ross Stull for the genealogy.
This is the quotation:-

Joseph Ross

Oskosh, Wisc.
April 12th., 1888

Dear Aunt, (Presumably Mary Harkness Ross)

It has been a long time since I wrote to you. Got discouraged, I wrote so many times and not received any answer and will try once more.

We are all, hope you the same. Mother is alive yet but blind and helpless. She has lost the use of her limbs entirely. She lives with me, sits in her chair all the time.

Sister Elen has gone to her "long home" was married three times the last time lived with her husband five months. It has been two years since she has died, she died happy said it was only a little way over the river I am crossing over cant be long at the longest it will be said we are gone to rest if we are prepared all will be well.

Aunt Mary I have not forgotten you I think of you often would like to you-----. Albert Harris was here this spring, told us you were living with Wallace, hoping to hear from you soon., I remain your friend, my love to you,

signed

Eliza. Foster.

Ross Born June 1820

In the same letter is the following:-
Quote:-

Dear Cousin, (To Wm. Wallace Ross)

I suppose you do not remember me I picture you as I last saw you in Seville the 10th. of June 1840 when we left for Wisconsin, I a girl of twenty years of age and you about 8 or 10 years old do you remember? Well what I want is, Brother Walter saw an advertisement in the Inter - Ocean that the Ross'es ~~xxxxxx~~ from Scotland were heirs of a large sum of mney now go back and find the names of your grandfathers and as much as you can for perhaps we are in the line, grandfather Ross had ten children, eight boys and two girls, Aunt Polly and a girl died when young. I do not know whether Uncle Daniel is alive or not I dont know whether fathers brother 's are all dead or not. You or some one sent us a ~~map~~ history of Grand father where he was born, how many came from Scotland and all, but it got lost. I know one that came with grandpa Ross, his name was William, he lived on the island near Bay of Quinta near Bath, owned most of the Island he was an old bachelor. We have forgotten grandpa's name but think it was Walter, (miss - page) ~~xxxxxx~~ if you see the beautiful country, His name was Warren Whiting a very nice man, a Baptist minister worth his thousands, he lives at Wanpon about 25 miles from us. Elen has one son living LeRoy Norstrand the other three died. John 's folks are well, but Uncle Elias is feeble. ~~Wicks~~ The Rhoads are well Uncle Hiram and Betsy has gone to their "long home" also Mrs Dr Mills. Aunt Mary I am sorry I didnt come and see you when I started to, got as far as Port Huron and gave it up. I dreaded to ride on the cars. Foster wanted me to go with him. I might have seen Uncle Joseph once more and the rest, he is at rest, ~~xxxxxx~~ of you, but it is to late to be sorry, he is at rest. You ~~xxx~~ are lonely and miss him. We are all getting along in years. It wont.

ROSS GENEALOGY

FOLLOWING is letter written by Mabel Ross for her father Walter Ross to Wallace Ross. The letter is postmarked Madison Lake County, D. T. (Dakota Territory) and dated July 31, 1888.

Quote:-

Wallace Ross

Dear Sir:-

Father received yours letter some time ago. He would have written but he fell from the house and dislocated his wrist. He was putting up the cornice when he fell. He got your letter just after he was hurt. Father says he will write and tell Aunt Mary ~~xxxxxx~~ all about the Harkness children when he gets so he can use his hand. Father has written twice to Chicago and sent the money for that book and never received an answer. Elmer my brother was hurt just after father he had his finger taken off by the cam (??). Will stop for this time. Write soon.

P.S. You will think this pretty short.

Yours truly

The following was in recent letter from Clara,:- October 1949

Harry(Ross) was saying that the prisoners at Andersonville were practically ~~xxxx~~ starved but the natives used to throw bottles of their distilled home whiskey over to the soldiers. Your grandfather (Decker) said that was the way he started drinking.

Following letter was written by Walter Ross from Madison Lake, County Dakota in June 25 1888 to W. W. Ross in Fremont (Clara Ross Stull, Father)

Quote:-

Dear Cousin,

→ Ross Foster
Sister Eliza. sent your letter to me and I was very pleased to hear from you and to read about the family. So far I never new that Father had a sister till a few years ago so you see that father never told us anything about the family so I begin to feel I would like to know the record of the family and about that time ~~you~~ saw an advertisement in the Chicago InterOcean of a book about money left to deferint heirs of fiferent names and millions of dollars that they could find no one to claim the money. There was a long list of names and Ross name was in the list. I will send and get the book and send it o you. You can trace back better than I can. It may be there is money for us

Alexander It seems it can be traced back a good many years- the Uncle William Ross was he the Father of Sandy Ross that was here and was there in Ohio this William Ross brother to Father. Was he?

yes according your account
How is Aunt Mary how is your sister that was just married. When I was there and your brother he had just lost his wife. How is he. I have two children my boy is 24 the girl is 14. Good children. I will send you pictu e soon as we can.

son of Walter Ross who was born Jan 6-1891
I think I will write to uncle in Canada. I lived with them a year and I would like to hear from them. I have movee off my farm and have rented it. and am building me a house in this City so to give my girl a chance to go to school (in Crawford ?) and like the one I used to carry mail for. I was 65 last Feb. I do not remember your age must be 54. I will write soon as I get the book.

My best wishes to you and family.

Same let er is continued:- quote I do not think Cousin Dr. (??) has given the histroy very plain. He says nothing of Grandfather nor did Father ever say any thing to me about his father. I think it to bad to let anything go like that. You can write to the Inter Ocean of, Chicago, Ill. the advertisement in the paper a year ago last fall the book was 50¢ it sold how to trace the back of names the book "as printed in London, England. I will send for it to Will send right a way. I have written to Uncle Daniel when you get a history you think is rite, put it in print.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's policy for the new year. The President states that he is pleased to see the Congress assembled, and that he is confident that the country is in a good position to meet the challenges of the future. He also mentions the recent election of Abraham Lincoln as President, and expresses his confidence in Lincoln's ability to lead the country.

I do not remember your name but I will write to you soon.

ROSS GENEALOGY

The following is a copy of a letter sent to Paul Wallace Michaels for the genealogy. The letter bears a gold leaf crest with the "R" letter at the head of the letter. The letter was sent by Clara Ross Stall from her collection. The writing is in very poor script and hardly readable. The following is quote from the letter believed to have been written in about 1885 - 1895. Quote:

Dear Cousin (Wallace, Clara's father)

Interesting isn't it?
I wish every success in your enterprise for humanity and liberty. What a cruel mean outrage on the personal rights of the people, compulsory vaccination is, and its shocking etc etc undecipherable etc, is free? America. But a day of reckoning is coming when the eyes of the people are opened to this heinous delirium of vaccination. Next few ~~years~~ undecipherable etc, North Maryborough
Last vacation I spent my time in ~~South Hastings~~ (or it could be Northumberland I don't know) Prince Edward County looking up data re-our own family and new facts. Our grandfather Walter Ross was commissioned Lieut. in the Royal Colonial Regiment composed of U. E. Loyalists (United Empire) on May 8th, ~~1874~~ 1784 and served under Col. Fraser as adjutant for two years.

To Wallace W. Ross. Written about ~~1825-1828~~ 1885-1895

Now if you have the history of the Ross'es please send me a copy of it. for you are interested in it as well as we. As far back as your grandfather will you help find it put.

The Inter-Ocean said there was a book sold for 50cents in Chicago to tell about the property of different ones. Brother Walter lives in Madison, Dakota, he wrote about this wanted one to find out about grandfather's name, his children and if there is anything for us. It will not come amiss to us, please write wabout you know about it. How do you get along, how is the folk.

My respects to all,

Dear Cousin (Wallace),

Wala's June 28

We were ever so much obliged to you for the papers you sent us. It is strang we did not find out more about our ancestor before our Fathers died, if we are not the ons to get the property we no some thing of our history or our grand ~~father~~ parents but as you say about Sandy Ross we have not much confidence in him, he was smart but a raskil, hope he is a better man now. We all though Grandmother Ross 's name was CATHERINE. I sent the papers yOu sent to Walter for him to send the advertisement to you, would like to see you out here if you ~~can~~ can come we will make make it pleasant as we can & you can see the country.

Our kind regards to you and yours Signed

The oldest burying place, we believe, in Prince Edward, is some distance from Indian Point, upon the Lake Shore, and east of the Rock, commonly known as Ross's Burying Ground. In this spot are buried some of the first and most distinguished of the first settlers of Maryborough.

Ross Genealogy

Dear Mr Burleigh,

I recieved your letter today and I must say that it is like a gift from heaven. Your offer is most appreciated, please accept my most sincere thanks. I have not been able to complete a chart because I have not been able to fill up the gap from 1759 to 1784 and from that date to approx. to 1806. The Joseph Ross is (line) clear from the early 1800's to date to the present generation of Rosses in this country. My entire efforts are now concentrated on the Canadian Rosses of our line which up to this time I just have not been able to secure the information desired to complete the family line, of that branch. We know here that a Alexander Ross was a member of the Assembly or Parliament as my cousins visited him with there father in 1890 when they were children (At Toronto) I had a photograph of him sent to Mr Lamb in Ottwa who still has it but could not report anything on it. I have extra copies of it here. He had several medals on his tunic and was a very large man. The Candaian Rosses I am trying to secure fecord of I think be the decendants of the brothers of Josph Ross etc. or perhaps theose of Jospeh's fathers, children. I have no detail at all of these people and there are times that I have given up hope but I ~~xxxx~~ recover enough to keep trying again and again hence the letters I sent into your area in hopes that some would reply. I just/know how to thank Mr Lewis for sending my letter to you.
dout
The names of William Ross and Capt. Daniel Ross appear in my records also, for the early 1800's.

You will readily see from the notes that I am forwarding to you that I have tried almost every concievable channel for information. I did get a reply from the Scots Ancestry but I can not pay for the research. I do it all my self and have already spent considerable. I made a special trip to Ohio for details and also have had most of the "old records" that I have, photostated. I have not yet coordinated my notes as I am still progressing the research

I am pleased to give you these notes for your files as I think that you will find them very interesting. I do not believe that our Rosses were U. E. that is from this country to Canada after the War of the Revelation here, if they came to Canada in 1784. I have found that the Harkness branch of the family were with Continental Army in 1776 while I am sure that the Ross branch were some where with the British Army both on opposing sides. I am not narrow minded and it makes my work on the genealogy that more intersting. You know a General Ross burned Washington, D. C. in the War of 1812 in retaliation because the forces of the U. S. A. burned York (Toronto) shortly before that. What genealogy will reveal is ~~xxxxing~~ amazing.

I do hope that the notes I am sending will help augment your files and if there is information that is avaliable abo t the Rosses I am lookin for it will we in this country have had it. I am the first in the family here to attempt to complete the work and if I can forge the link in Canda I can begin the editing.

This is my first attempt at preparing a genealogy and I hope you will bear with me. You and Mr Lewis have been most kind and perhaps some day I will have the pleasure of meeting you both. If you see Mr lewis will you thank him for me again please.

I am looking forward to your reply.

With best personal regards, I am

Most sincerely

Paul Wallace Michaels

Dear Mr. Burleigh,

I received your letter today and I must say that it is like a gift from heaven. Your offer is most appreciated, please accept my most sincere thanks. I have not been able to complete a chart because I have not been able to fill up the gap from 1759 to 1784 and from that date to approx. to 1808. The Joseph Ross is (line) clear from the early 1800's to date to the present generation of Rosses in this country. My entire efforts are now concentrated on the Canadian Rosses of our line which up to this time I just have not been able to secure the information desired to complete the family line, of that branch. We know that a Alexander Ross was a member of the Assembly or Parliament as my cousin visited him with their father in 1890 when they were children (at Toronto) I had a photograph of him sent to Mr. Lamb in Ottawa who still has it but could not re-ort anything on it. I have extra copies of it here. He had several medals on his tunic and was a very large man. The Canadian Rosses I am trying to secure record of I think be the descendants of the brothers of Joseph Ross etc. or perhaps those of Joseph's father, children. I have no detail at all of these people and there are times that I have given up hope but I know recover enough to keep trying again and again hence the letters I sent into your area in hopes that some would reply. I just know how to thank Mr. Lewis for sending my letter to you. The names of William Ross and Capt. Daniel Ross appear in my records also, for the early 1800's. You will readily see from the notes that I am forwarding to you that I have tried almost every conceivable channel for information. I did get a reply from the Scots Ancestry but I can not pay for the research. I do it all myself and have already spent considerable. I made a special trip to Ohio for details and also have had most of the "old records" that I have photostated. I have not yet coordinated my notes as I am still progressing the research. I am pleased to give you these notes for your files as I think that you will find them very interesting. I do not believe that our Rosses were U. S. that is from this country to Canada after the War of the Revolution here, if they came to Canada in 1784. I have found that the Harkness branch of the family were with Continental Army in 1776 while I am sure that the Ross branch were some where with the British Army both on opposing sides. I am not narrow minded and it makes my work on the genealogy that more interesting. You know a General Ross burned Washington, D. C. in the War of 1812 in retaliation because the forces of the U. S. A. burned York (Toronto) shortly before that. What genealogy will reveal is xxxxxx amazing. I do hope that the notes I am sending will help augment your files and if there is information that is available about the Rosses I am looking for it will be in this country have had it. I am the first in the family here to attempt to complete the work and if I can forge the link in Canada I can begin the editing. This is my first attempt at preparing a genealogy and I hope you will bear with me. You and Mr. Lewis have been most kind and perhaps some day I will have the pleasure of meeting you both. If you see Mr. Lewis will you thank him for me again please.

I am looking forward to your reply.

With best personal regards, I am

Most sincerely,
Paul Wallace Michaels

Dear Mr Bulch,

I recieved your letter with enclosure from Mr Herbert Lewis and I hardly know how to express my thanks for your trouble. The information is most helpful. In fact it is the first detail that I have recieved in three years (from Canada) of active research and yet family records state definitely they lived in the area of Bath, Kingston and ~~Pott.~~ Piston

I have had for the last year a letter that my cousin gave that was written about 1890 and it is very difficult to decipher. The word that I could not figure out looked like Northumberland, but last Saturday I saw books in the Library here that spoke of South Marysburg and ~~North Marysburg~~ ^{Marysburg, North} and I am certain now that the word is North Marysburg. This letter is signed by Alexander Ross and could be the Alexander mentioned in Mr Lewis letter. Quoting from the Ross letter is the following: "Last vacation I spent my time in North (or South) Marysburg Prince Edward County looking up data re-our family"

I have no idea where Marysburg is but presumably it is in your area.

The relation of the Rosses here in this country with the Canadian Rosses would be cousins and we have lost track of them since 1900 and it is this family of Alexander Ross that I understand has all the Ross records dating back to Scotland. Some day I am hopeful of reaching one of the living Rosses in Canada.

I am an amatuer at preparing a genealogy and the research is most difficult. It is most gratifying ~~that~~ to find ~~two~~ two gentlemen that have been so courteous as you and Mr Lewis. I only wish I could thank you personally.

May I thank you both again for your very kind cooperation,

Most sincerely

Subject:- Ross Genealogy

Dear Mr Lamb,

May I refer to the correspondence exchanged recently in connection with the above subject.

The writer has been doing considerable research in the New York Library for details on the above and has been quite successful with certain points, however there are several questions that perhaps can clear up.

you

I have found a Captain Thomas Ross with the 78th Regiment commanded by Fraser in the Battle of Plains of Abraham. This is the only Captain Ross listed in the book by W. F. Ford in his book "British Officers in America 1754 -- 1774" and presumably is taken from official muster rolls. I am searching for a Capt. Alexander Ross as my various letters will reveal. Alexander is such a common name that I doubt his first name was Alexander. Is there any possibility your Archives may have record of any details of this Capt. Thomas Ross?

Some of our family records state he was with the Black Watch and I have been working on the assumption that the Black Watch was not at ~~Quebec~~ Quebec at that time. I have found that the 43rd Regiment was at Quebec and is included in the list of battle participation in the Book "Siege of Quebec and the Battle of the Plains of Abraham" Vol Two. The Regiment was commanded by Kennedy who evidently was a Scotchman. The Black Watch was first the 43rd. and later the 42nd. Can your office confirm the 43rd Regiment as the Black at Quebec in 1759.

I seem to have exhausted the only books that I can think of in the Library for details and if your staff can think of books that would help me that may be at the N. Y. Library 42nd St and 5th Ave I shall be most grateful for suggestions.

I have read so many books on Prince Edward County that includes Picton, Bath and Kingston including the Bay of Quinte etc that I think I know that area better than the local historian and although our family records definitely state Picton, Bath and Kingston I have yet to find any record. You kindly sent me a brief biography on Lt. Col. Walter Ross who was a Mayor of Picton and I think he will prove the "link" as he was born in Fern-Ross-shire Scotland.

Many many thanks for your past courtesies,

Most sincerely

I have found a Captain Thomas Ross with the 78th Regiment commanded by Fraser in the Battle of Plattsburgh. This is the only Captain Ross listed in the book by W. H. Ford in his book "Famous Officers in America 1784 - 1874" and presumably is taken from official muster rolls. I am searching for a Capt. Alexander Ross as of various letters will reveal. Alexander is such a common name that I doubt his first name was Alexander. Is there any possibility your archives may have record of any details of this Capt. Thomas Ross?

Some of our family records state he was with the Black Watch and I have been looking on the assumption that the Black Watch was not at Plattsburgh at that time. I have found that the 42nd Regiment was engaged and is included in the list of battle participation in the book "Signs of Quebec and the Battle of the Plains of Abraham" Vol. 2. The Regiment was commanded by Kennedy who evidently was a Scottishman. The Black Watch was first the 42nd and later the 4th. Our office confirms the 42nd Regiment as the Black Watch as of 1759.

I seem to have extracted the only records that I can think of in the Library for details and if your staff can obtain of books that would help as that may be at the N. Y. Library 4th and 5th Ave I shall be most grateful for suggestions.

I have read no my books on Prince Edward County that includes Plattsburgh and Kingston including the 4th of June etc that I think I know that was better than the local history and although our family records definitely state Plattsburgh and Kingston I have yet to find any record. You will send me a brief biography or Mr. Col. William Ross who was a Major of Plattsburgh and I think he will prove the "link" as he was born in New-Hampshire.

ROSS GENEALOGY

The following has been submitted by Harry Ross and Clara Ross Stull for use in the above genealogy. The material was recieved by Paul W. Michaels on Sept. 27th., 1949.

OBITUARY OF JOSEPH ROSS COPIED FROM CLIPPING
FROM SEVILLE, OHIO PAPER DATED APRIL, 20, 1876, PRESUMABLY THE " WEEKLY ".

ANOTHER OLD PIONEER AND LONG TIME PUBLIC OFFICIAL

Ross

GONE

Joseph ~~ROSS~~ Esq., died at his residence in Seville, between 4 and 5 O'clock ~~XXXXXX~~ P. M., on Saturday, April, 15th., 1876, aged 72 years, 3 months and 28 days. The following is a skeeth of his life:

Walter Ross, the father of Joseph Ross came to America from Rosshire, Scotland about the year 1794, being at that time, 15 years of age, and one of a family of six children, two of whom died on the passage and were buried in the Atlantic. The family landed at Quebec and eventually settled near Picton, Canada and on the point of land lying between the beautiful bay of Quinta and Lake Ontario.

1784 ?
In the year 1790, Walter Ross was married to Catherine Williams of English parentage. Of this union there were ten children. Joseph Ross, the youngest was born at Saratoga, New York, December 17th, 1803, his father having died in Canada a short time before his birth, and his mother having subsequently removed to her friends at Saratoga, New York. His half sister, by subsequent marriage of the mother, became the second wife of W. Harris of Seville.

The boyhood days of Joseph Ross up to the age of 12 were spent with his mother and brothers in Canada, near Bath, twenty miles from Kingston. About the year 1815 he returned with his mother, who had a second time become a widow, to Cammillus, west of Syracuse, N. Y. and lived alternately with his brother, John and Robert in New York and his brothers in Canada. John, Robert and Joseph Ross, became permanent settlers in the States. Before the War of 1812 at the instigation of some Tory neighbors, John Ross, at that time a resident of Canada was fined and imprisoned for speaking disrespectfully of King George III. He had acquired Republican proclivities in his visits to New York. During the War he was forced into the British Army. He was taken prisoner by the American forces and thence forward remained a citizen of the States. Joseph Ross spent several of his earliest years with his brothers.

About the year 1825, Joseph Ross joined the Masonic fraternity at Cammillus, N. Y. He was one of the charter members of the first lodge organized in Seville, Ohio about the year of 1841., and subsequently served as worshipful master. He retained his attachment to the fraternity through its darkest hours and to the close of his life.

He came from Cammillus, to Seville, Ohio in August 1829 of company with Mary Harkness, but returned the same fall. In October, 1830 he again returned to Seville, was married to Mary Harkness and went back to Cammillus, N. Y. his wife remaining and teaching school during the winter. In 1831 he took up his permanent residence in Seville, Ohio in which place he remained a citizen up to the time of his decease. By 1843 he had contributed to the growth of the place by the erection of three dwelling houses and other buildings. During these years he pursued his trade of shoemaking and tanner, both at that time being generally conjoined.

In 1843 he was elected Justice of Peace. He continued to hold the position of Magistrate until 1875, a period of thirty two years with the exception of a short interregnum of a year and half, occasioned by his resignation. At his court in early times practiced those who have since ranked among eminent lawyers of the country, among them Chief Justice Carter of the District of Columbia. During his long service of thirty years he officiated on eighty two marriage occasions. Of the hundred and thousands of law suits he adjudicated, not a solitary decision was ever reversed by higher courts.

Peaceably disposed himself he always sought to discourage legal quarrels and used his official influence to secure their peaceful adjustment. He became so thoroughly familiar with the principles of law that he was a sort of standing legal counsel of the country, for miles around and even of professional lawyers. The business of ~~xxx~~ conveyancing was almost exclusively in his hands. Scarcely a day passed without frequent calls for legal counsel and advice. The high estimation in which he was universally held is evidenced by the fact that he continued to be regularly elected, even when the town was overwhelmingly opposed to him ~~politically~~ politically. He always took an active interest in the politics of the country, but was never a politician in any unfavorable sense of the term. He was at different times the ~~xxx~~ candidate of his party for Probate Judge, Auditor, etc. He served two terms or through two administrations a Postmaster and was Treasurer of the incorporated village of Seville for a period of twenty two years. He was re-elected two weeks before his death by a unanimous vote, notwithstanding it was generally known that he could, in all probabilities live but a few days. He kindly appreciated this evidence of public estimation and favor. Hundreds of thousands of dollars passed through his hands during his official career. Among his last official acts was the ~~adjustment~~ adjustment of his treasury accounts, in which he evinced much anxiety that they should be just right, and not a dollar of the public treasury ever cling to his hands. He was always exceedingly painstaking in all his official transactions and was ever characterized by the strictest most scrupulous and conscientious integrity. His sensitive anxiety in connection with his official business and close application of the same, undoubtedly shortened his life many years.

Of his seven children four are still living, two having died in childhood, one, a son Alexander DeWitt, in early and promising manhood, the death of the latter was the severest blow to the father's life. He was a kind and most indulgent father. He gave all his children the best advantages for obtaining an education, the town ~~affording~~ afforded or their ambition would receive, often giving the work personal attention and supervision in its rudimentary stages. His own advantage for obtaining an education were extremely limited, but by virtue of a remarkably good memory and general reading he made himself a well informed and intelligent man.

Nearly three years ago he was stricken with paralysis in the form of hemiplegia, disabling his left side. He rallied so far as to walk with difficulty, but never recovered the use of his left arm. He continued the transaction of business up to a short time before his death, kindly resisting earnest entreaties of his sons to give up business and live with them.

Some three weeks before his death he probably received a slight shock, although unconscious of the fact. From this time he failed rapidly. He bore his weak, disabled condition and sufferings with great fortitude, never uttering a moan until the last few hours of his life. He retained his memory and mental faculties in their full strength and clearness up to the moment of dissolution. He died about four o'clock P. M. in the presence of his family, all his children being present except his son Zachary, who did not reach home until two hours after he expired.

A few hours before his death he remarked "I think Mr Blake will get up again." Referring to his long time friend the H. N. H. G. Blake of Medina, who at that ~~time~~ time lay at the point of death and only survived him by twenty four hours.

Exceedingly wanting in self confidence and of a very retiring disposition he shrank from all public demonstrations and organization, requiring the discharge of public duties. He led an irreproachable life, a life without blemish in its moral character, and died, expressing his trust in Him who doeth all things well. The universal expression of the community and country, with whose growth and development he has been so closely identified for forty five years, is that Seville has lost one of its most honored and respected citizens, one whose place cannot well be filled.

END OF QUOTE.

Information desired on Capt. Alexander Ross who participated with Gen. Wolfe on the assault on Quebec in the year of 1759.

CHRONOLOGY

Family records indicate that Capt. Alexander Ross died in the year of 1805. This would place his age at the time of the Battle of Plains of Abraham at Quebec at approximately 20 and thus the earliest that he could have been born would have been 1720 and the latest 1739. If born in 1720 he would have died at 85 in 1805.

Family papers also state that he was probably born in Balna-Gown, in or near Ross-Shire, Scotland.

During the research efforts of the writer who is editing this genealogy the only Scottish Regiment that was in action at Quebec was ~~Fraser's~~ Fraser's 78th., also that Fraser formed this regiment for duty in America from the CLAN Fraser in Scotland. Thus it follows that it would appear very unusual for a member of CLAN Ross to be with CLAN Fraser. Some records show or try to import that Capt. Alexander Ross was with the Black Watch and none of the books the writer has read place the Black Watch at Quebec at that time (1759).

etc.

From miscellaneous letters, obituaries/it is found that Capt. Alexander Ross received a grant of land from the Crown for his exploits at Quebec presumed to be as follows:-

" Pitton, Canada and on the point of land lying between the beautiful bay of Quinte and Lake Ontario"

" His services were rewarded by a grant of land in Prince Edward County in Upper Canada."

" The boyhood days of Joseph Ross (One of Capt. Alex. Ross descendants) up to the age of 12 were spent with his brothers and mother (Catherine Williams) in Canada, near Bath, twenty miles from Kingston. (This was about 1815)

The Office of Wm. Kaye Lamb, Archivist of Canada, Ottawa has submitted the following: Quote

" The British Army list for the year of 1763, page 141. lists Mr Ross as an agent for the 78th., Regiment, but unfortunately the list does not give his first name. It does, however mention that he lived on Conduit Street in the City of Quebec."

"One Capt. Alexander Ross was made a lieutenant in the Army on May 22, 1761 and armed to the 45th Regiment of Foot (Nottinghamshire) on July 4th, 1764. He was promoted to Captain on May 30, 1775, and to the rank of Major in the 76th Foot on October 25th., 1787, and to Lieutenant-Colonel in the same Regiment Sept. 1., 1795"

In reference to the last quote it is not believed that the last para..has any connection however the first paragraph seems to be "in line" with the information I am after.

ROSS GENEALOGY

The following has been submitted by Harry Ross and Clara Ross Stull for use in the above genealogy. The material was received by Paul W. Michaels on September 27, 1949.

Dear Paul:

Fremont, Ohio, Sept. 24, 1949

I came down to Fremont this afternoon (Saturday), and this evening Clara and I went up to the Public Library to consult the histories of Sandusky County to learn what we could about the Ross genealogy.

In one history we found an interesting account of the Ross family, undoubtedly, written by our father, William Wallace Ross. In this genealogy or history of the family father says the first of the Ross family to come to North America was Captain Alexander Ross, who it appears was with General Wolfe at the battle of the Plains of Abraham. His services were rewarded by a grant of land in Prince Edward County in upper Canada. Alexander Ross was the son of the fore-going Captain Alexander Ross, and was born in Scotland, and later came to his father's estate, and probably died there. The name of his wife has not been preserved but she was probably of New York, for one son, Joseph, was posthumus and was born in Saratoga County, N.Y., a few months after his father's death. We are sending on to you a clipping from the Seville, Ohio, paper which contains an extended notice of the death of Joseph Ross, the father of Alexander DeWit, Zaccheus, McDonough, William Wallace, Zachary, Mary Ross Decker and Albert Ross.

We find from this clipping that Walter Ross was the father of Joseph Ross, and that Walter came to America from Rosshire, Scotland, about 1794, at the age of 15. Walter was one of a family of six children, two of whom died on the voyage across the ocean and were buried at sea. The clipping says "the family landed at Quebec, and eventually settled near Picton, Canada, on the point of land lying between the beautiful bay of Quinte and Lake Ontario." I do not have a county or a detailed map of Ontario for consultation now but the land on which this family settled near Picton may be the grant of land in Prince Edward County, in Upper Canada, so-called at that time and now called Ontario. The province of Quebec at one time was called Lower Canada, and Ontario was known as Upper Canada.

I am not sure but it may be that Walter Ross, the father of Joseph Ross, was the son of Alexander Ross, who was the son of Captain Alexander Ross, who received this grant of land in Prince Edward County for his services at the battle of the Plains of Abraham. This battle was fought in 1759 or 20 years before the coming of Walter Ross to Canada in 1779, and from these two dates I infer there may have been another family or generation of the Ross family between 1759 and 1779, and that Alexander Ross, the son of Captain Alexander Ross, may have been the father of this family, hence the father of Walter.

I suppose you know it was customary of governments to give tracts of land to soldiers in return for their services in battles or in wars. King William of England gave large tracts of land in Northern Ireland to the Scotch soldiers who helped him win the battle of the Boyne in Ireland over the former English King, James II, who was forced off the English throne because he announced to the English people that his son by his Catholic wife, the Duchess of Modena, an Italian, would be brought up in the Catholic faith. James sought refuge in France, organized an army of Catholic adherents in England and sympathizers in France and Ireland, invaded Ireland, and fought William, who had been called over from Holland to take the English throne, at the battle of the River Boyne. James and his army were utterly crushed in this battle, and that ended all hopes of his recovering his throne and converting England to

The following has been published by Harry Ross and Clara Ross still for use in the above cemetery. The material was received by Paul W. Williams on September 27, 1949.

Excerpt, Ohio, Sept. 22, 1948

Dear Paul:
I came down to Exeter this afternoon (Saturday), and this evening Clara and I went up to the public library to consult the history of Sandusky County as far as we could about the Ross genealogy.

In our history we found an interesting account of the Ross family, undoubtedly written by our father, William Wallace Ross. In this genealogy or history of the family history says the first of the Ross family to come to North America was Captain Alexander Ross, who it appears was with General Wolfe at the battle of the Plains of Abraham. His services were rewarded with a grant of land in Prince Edward County in 1770. After 1770, the Ross family, and I am sure, got to the Ross family, and probably died there. The name of this ship was not then preserved but was probably of the Ross family, for one son, Joseph, was born in Exeter County, N.Y., a few months after his father's death. He was serving on a ship sailing from the Pacific, Ohio, upon which carried an extraordinary number of the Ross family, the father of Alexander Ross, Joseph, Robinson, William Wallace, Joseph, Mary Ross, Peter and Albert Ross.

We find from this clipping that Walter Ross was the father of Joseph Ross, who left after came to Exeter from Exeter, N.Y., about 1770, at the age of 15. Walter was one of a family of six children, two of whom died on the voyage across the ocean and were buried at sea. The clipping says "the family landed at Exeter, and eventually settled near Exeter, N.Y., on the point of land lying between the beautiful bay of Exeter and Lake Ontario." I do not have a copy of a detailed map of Ontario for consultation but the land on which this family settled near Exeter may be the grant of land in Prince Edward County, in Exeter County, N.Y., as called at that time and now called Ontario. The province of Quebec at one time was called Lower Canada, and Ontario was known as Upper Canada.

I am not sure but it may be that Walter Ross, the father of Joseph Ross, was the son of Alexander Ross, who was the son of Captain Alexander Ross, who received this grant of land in Prince Edward County for his services at the battle of the Plains of Abraham. This battle was fought in 1759 or 1760 before the coming of Walter Ross to Canada in 1770, and from these two dates I infer there may have been another family or generation of the Ross family between 1770 and 1775, and that Alexander Ross, the son of Captain Alexander Ross, may have been the father of this family, hence the father of Walter.

I suppose you know it was customary of governments to give grants of land to soldiers in return for their services in battle or in war. King William of England gave large tracts of land in Northern Ireland to the Scotch soldiers who helped him in the battle of the Boyne in Ireland over the former English King, James II, who was forced off the British throne. James was known to the English people that his son by his Catholic wife, the Duchess of Orleans, an Italian, would be brought up in the Catholic faith. James sought refuge in France, organized an army of Catholic soldiers in England and spent his time in France and Ireland, Ireland, Ireland, and Ireland, and Ireland, called over from Holland to make the English throne, at the battle of the River Boyne. James and his army were utterly crushed in this battle, and the end of all hopes of his recovering his throne and converting England to Catholicism. The Scotch soldiers under William were rewarded generously with large tracts of land in Northern Ireland. So that explains today why Northern Ireland is Protestant, settled largely by ardent Scotch Presbyterians who fought in the battle of the Boyne in 1690, and it also explains the bitter controversy that has raged down through the nearly three centuries on the part of the Catholics of Southern Ireland and Central Ireland to recover that lost territory. The Harknesses, originally Scotch, were undoubtedly rewarded with grants of land in Ireland from the English crown, and that undoubtedly explains their location or settlement in Northern Ireland. My grandmother Ross always pointed with pride to her Scotch ancestry and yet she had all the traits and the appearance and the brogue of the Irish, I always thought.

The article of the Ross genealogy, undoubtedly, written by father, continues.

In 1931 Joseph Ross married Mary Harkness, born at Salem, Washington County, New York, in 1806, and died in 1897. There were seven children of this family, namely, Alexander De Wit, who died at the age of 17, Zaccheus, who died in infancy; McDonough, who died in childhood; William Wallace Ross, Zachary Ross, Mary Ross Decker, and Albert Ross. This clears up the seven children, one by the name of Zaccheus and the other by the name of Zachary, the last named being Grace Ross Worst's father. The article also said the great-grandfather of William Wallace Ross was a grandson of the Laird of Balnagown, who fought with Robert Bruce at the famous battle of Bannockburn in 1314, the battle in which the Scotch army inflicted an overwhelming defeat over the English army.

END OF QUOTATION

FROM LETTER ~~XXX~~ HARRY ROSS DATED SEPT. 24th., 1949

On the other hand, the Boston soldiers under William were rewarded generally with large tracts of land in Northern Ireland. As that English colony of Northern Ireland is Protestant, settled largely by English Presbyterians who fought in the battle of the Boyne in 1690, and it is also within the latter territory that was raged down through the nearly three centuries on the part of the Catholic of Southern Ireland and Great Britain to recover that lost territory. The Larkins, originally Scotch, were undoubtedly rewarded with grants of land in Ireland from the English crown, and this undoubtedly explains their location or settlement in Northern Ireland. If gentleman Rose always pointed with pride to her Boston ancestry and yet she had all the traits and the appearance and the phrase of the Irish, I always thought.

The article of the Rose genealogy, remarkably, written by father, continues.

In 1821 Joseph Rose married Mary Larkins, born at Larkins, Washington County, New York, in 1801, and died in 1857. There were seven children of this family, namely: Alexander Rose, who died at the age of 17; George, who died in infancy; John, who died in childhood; William, who died in infancy; Mary, who died in infancy; and Joseph Rose, who died in infancy. The name of Alexander and the other is the name of a son, the last name being given Rose's father. The article also says that the great-grandfather of William Rose was a grandson of the Duke of Devonshire, who fought with Robert Bruce at the famous battle of Bannockburn in 1314, the battle in which the Scotch army defeated an overwhelming host over the English army.

TWO

Mr. William D. Ross died at the age of 75 in the year of 1943, thus placing his birth at 1868. Mr. W. D. Ross assumed the duties of Superintendent of Fremont Ohio Schools on the death of his father, William Wallace Ross in 1906, to the completion of that term.

THREE

Mr. William Wallace Ross, father of William D. Ross, was born in Seville (Guilford), Ohio, U.S.A., December 24, 1834. Mr. William/Ross' parents were Joseph and Mary Harkness Ross. Wallace

FOUR

Copied from the obituary of William Wallace Ross is the following:
Prof. William Wallace Ross, Superintendent of Public Schools Fremont, Ohio and one of the oldest and most widely known educators in the state, was born in Seville, Medina County, Ohio, December 24, 1834. The Ross family is descended from ancient and time honored Scottish blood. His great grandfather, Captain Alexander Ross was an officer in General Wolfe's Army of invasion, and took part in the Battle on the Plains of Abraham, Quebec, and for his gallant services subsequently received a grant of land from the crown, and settled in upper Canada with his family, where he lived until his death in 1805. His grandfather, Alexander Ross, was born in Scotland, but lived most of his life on his father's estate in Canada. The full details of his life's history seem not to be recorded, for his son, Joseph Ross, the father of Prof. W. W. Ross, was born, it is known near Saratoga, N.Y., a few months after his father's death.

Joseph Ross spent most of his time between New York State and Canada migrating, however, from New York State to Medina County, Ohio, in 1830, and was one of the first settled in Seville, Ohio, where he worked at his trade, shoemaking, until he was elected justice of the peace, in which capacity he served over thirty years. Joseph Ross married Mary Harkness in 1831.

the last year (1945) and is presented to indicate the "direction" in that further research may continue.

ONE

Former records substantiate William H. Rose as being his family record back to the days when the name of Rose lived in the county of Kent,
IN SCOTLAND, and the great grandfather was a member of the name of ROSE-COW.

TWO

Mr. William H. Rose died at the age of 72 in the year of 1945, thus placing his birth at 1873. Mr. H. Rose assumed the office of Superintendent of Revenue Ohio Schools on the death of his father, William Wallace Rose in 1935, on the completion of that term.

THREE

Mr. William Wallace Rose, father of William H. Rose, was born in Seville (California), Ohio, U.S.A., December 24, 1881. Mr. William Rose's parents were Joseph and Mary Harless Rose.

FOUR

Conceded from the obituary of William Wallace Rose is the following:
Prof. William Wallace Rose, Superintendent of Public Schools
Piquette, Ohio and one of the oldest and most widely known educators in the state, was born in Seville, Medina County, Ohio, December 24, 1881. The Rose family is descended from ancient and time honored Scottish blood. His great grandfather, Captain Alexander Rose was an officer in General Wolfe's army of invasion, and took part in the battle on the Plains of Abraham, Quebec, and for his gallant services subsequently received a grant of land from the crown, and settled in upper Canada with his family, where he lived until his death in 1803. His grandfather, Alexander Rose, was born in Scotland, but lived most of his life on his father's estate in Canada. The full details of his life's history need not be repeated, for his son, Joseph Rose, the father of Prof. W. W. Rose, has said, it is known near Toronto, N.Y., few months after his father's death.

Joseph Rose spent most of his time between New York State and Canada migrating, however, from New York State to Medina County, Ohio, in 1810, and was one of the first settled in Seville, Ohio, where he worked at his trade, shoemaking, until he was elected justice of the peace, in which capacity he served over thirty years.
Joseph Rose married Mary Harless in 1831.

FIVE

Paragraph four indicates Capt. Alexander Ross died in 1805. The Captain would have to be at least 20 years old to participate in Battle of Plains of Abraham, thus the latest he could have been born would be 1739 but not earlier than 1720. (Most of the Ross'es in the U. S. A. since 1806 have lived to 80 years old and longer).

SIX

In explanation of paragraph number one it would appear that the great grandfather mentioned as the grandson of the Laird of Balna-Gown, would be Alexander Ross, the father of Joseph Ross.

SEVEN

It is thought that the land grant that was given Captain Alexander Ross was near Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, township as all my material speaks of "Upper Canada".

EIGHT

Francis Parkman's Book Volume 2 - Montcalm and Wolfe. It was indicated that the 78th Highland Regiment (Fraser's) participated in the battle for Quebec at the Plains of Abraham. Is there any record that could place Captain Alexander Ross with that Regiment? It is believed that the 78th is now known as the Seaforth's.

Paragraph four indicates Capt. Alexander Ross died in 1805. The Captain would have to be at least 15 years old to participate in Battle of Britain, from the latest he could have been born would be 1785 but not earlier than 1780. (List of Rosses in the U. S. A. since 1800 have lived to 80 years old and longer).

In explanation of paragraph number one it would appear that the great-grandfather mentioned as the grandson of the said of Belma-Gown, would be Alexander Ross, the father of Joseph Ross.

It is thought that the first grant that was given Captain Alexander Ross was near Halifax, Canada, towards an all of natural aspects of "Upper Canada".

Further reference to Ross's book volume 7 - Nova Scotia and Belle. It was indicated that the 7000 Highland Regiment (Ross's) participated in the battle for Quebec as the Prince of Wales. In these early records there could place Captain Alexander Ross with that Regiment? It is believed that the 78th is now known as the Buffs.

Dear Mr. Michaels:

I have your letter of the 24th ultimo together with your notes on the Ross family for which please accept my thanks. This information will be added to our genealogical files, and will be available to research scholars.

Your information about Captain Alexander Ross having served with General Wolfe at the Battle of the Plains of Abraham, and later having been granted land in Prince Edward County, Upper Canada, is interesting, and establishes a new fact in the granting of land to soldiers after the taking of Quebec. Most of the officers and men who served with Wolfe at Quebec, and who were granted lands, were allotted land in Lower Canada. The Upper Canada settlements generally were not established until the arrival of the United Empire Loyalists about the year 1779.

I enclose herewith a brief biography of Lieut. Col. Walter Ross of Prince Edward County giving the dates of his term of office as Member of the Legislative Assembly in Upper Canada, and later as Member of Parliament in the Dominion House.

Yours very truly,

The following was written by William Wallace Ross as his mother told her early life, when she was in her eighties.

MOTHER ROSS' HISTORY (MARY HARKNESS ROSS, PWM)

Her father's name was James Harkness who was born in Pelham, Mass. He died in Wisconsin. Her mother's name was Mary Rhodes, who was born in Pelham, Mass., she supposed and married there. They moved to Salem, Washington County New York not far from the year of 1800. Her father James Harkness's people were from Ireland near the N. E. border of Scotland. The Rhodes were from England. Mary Harkness was born of above parents in Salem, N. Y. She was educated first at common schools then at the Seminary taught by Miss Hemenway from Burlington, Vt. or perhaps Middlebury, Vermont, and Miss Fuller also from Vermont and excellent teachers.

Mary Harkness taught school in Granville, six miles from Salem, Hartford two or three from Granville where her sister Nancy Wright lived. An Uncle lived in Granville. His name was Jacob Harkness. She taught in Salem first, and in Sandy Hill last. The County seat was in Salem. While she was teaching in Salem six months her parents moved to Seville, Ohio two years at least before she came here. While at Sandy Hill she made her home with her Uncle Elias Rhodes. She had only one sister, Mrs. ~~Wright~~ and one little sister had died. Wright

There were seven brothers, but one died when a little boy.

Six brothers came with their father to Ohio. She stopped at a sister of her mother's - Irene Rhodes who had married a Rhodes - and this lady told her that she had a husband selected for her there. - This was a young man named Joseph Ross, who was a shoe maker by trade and tanner, and worked at Camillus Onondago County where the Aunt lived. He was formerly from Canada of Scotch descent. He was born in Saratoga, after ~~after~~ after the death of his father, and his mother returned to Canada and came back again to the States later. She had a brother at Camillus. The reason of his settling there.

Aunt Irene Rhodes and Uncle Solomon had a son named Hiram Rhodes, who, who was to accompany his cousin Mary Harkness to her parents in Ohio. After two or three weeks visit there and acquaintance with the young friend of her Uncle's family, and they were about to start for Ohio, she was surprised to find that Mr Ross was also coming to Ohio with them. She demurred at this and asked her Aunt what would be said of her coming on so slow and lonely a journey with two young men. The Aunt saw no objection as it was very common for emigrants to make as large a party in traveling as they could. They came by Canal and Lake Erie to Cleveland. Many passengers being sick on the lake. The stewardess made up a bed in the cabin for the young lady and an older lady. She was a little nauseated. She did not see the young men who were in the gentlemen's cabin. Her Lake fare was $6.00. At Cleveland there was no pier and they had to be conveyed to land in a row boat holding 25 passengers, and dark as could be at ten or eleven at night. After being out the night before and all day on the lake passage. Mary Harkness went with a woman who had slept in cabin with her to a hotel in Cleveland for the night. The young men also stayed there at the same hotel. This was August 1850. Cleveland was a small place compared with later years, but quite a thriving place. The young people next morning took passage with some lawyers going to Columbus and rode all of them with their baggage in a stout lumber wagon. They reached Seville about 4 P M. The drive was through woods all the way to Medina where there was quite a little village, and two or three log houses between there and Seville. The road was turnpiked from Cleveland and called a "State Road". They ~~stayed~~ stopped at a hotel in Seville long enough to get washed and the dust brushed from their

Her father's name was James Rhodes who was born in Falmouth, Mass. He died in Massachusetts. Her mother's name was Mary Rhodes, who was born in Falmouth, Mass. She was married and married there. They moved to Salem, Washington County New York not far from the year of 1800. Her father James Rhodes' people were from Ireland near the N. E. border of Scotland. The Rhodes were from England. Mary Rhodes was born of above parents in Salem, N. Y. She was educated first at common schools then at the Seminary taught by Miss Newberry from Northampton, Vt. or perhaps Middlebury, Vermont, and Miss Butler also from Vermont and excellent teachers. Mary Rhodes taught school in Granville, six winters from Salem, Hartford two or three from Granville where her sister Mary lived. In Granville lived in Granville. His name was Jacob Rhodes. She taught in Salem first, and in Granville after that. The County seat was in Salem. While she was teaching in Salem her parents moved to Leville, Ohio two years at least before she came here. While at Leville she was with her sister Mary Rhodes. She had only one sister, Mary Rhodes and one little sister had died. There were seven brothers, but one died when a little boy.

Six brothers came with their father to Ohio. One stopped at a sister of her mother's. The young people met morning, noon, and evening with some lawyers going to Columbus and rode all of them with their baggage in a stout leather wagon. They reached Seville about 4 P. M. The drive was through woods all the way to Seville where there was quite a little village, and two or three log houses between there and Seville. The road was turpentine from Cleveland and called a "Slate Road". They stopped at a hotel in Seville long enough to get washed and the next pressed from their garments, they walked a mile through the forest by a path to her father's board house, a temporary dwelling for a new settler. She came around suddenly upon her mother who with tears and smiles coming embraced her lon-separated child. The young travelers were welcomed by the entire neighborhood, and invited and feasted on chicken pie and other dainties for a week or until they had visited everybody about them. Mary Harkness taught school in Seville that winter with ~~the~~ younger men bigger than she, but studious, gallant and respectful for her pupils. Mr Ross and Mr Rhodes went home then to New York State. Mr Ross returned to Ohio in the spring and married Mary Harkness who was about 24 years old. Her descendents who have time, can tell by referring to the family record. Mr Ross bought him a lot and built a house and worked at his trade. He was made a Justice of Peace, being a great reader and very intelligent and scholarly for his time. They were married at Medina, Ohio by Rev. Barnes. Her wedding ~~gown~~ dress was ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ brown silk with a pink ribbon shade, ~~xxxxxxxx~~ very handsome. The waist had two bias folds from waist to shoulder and down the back and worn with a belt. Then large button molds covered with silk were up the front. The skirt wadded up between the lining and facing to make it stand out, and two heavy cores of cotton ~~and~~ covered with silk trimmed the skirt around the foot at the top of the facing. She had a nice white dress, and a nice black bombazine and then prints and cotton dresses for her wardrobe. The sleeves were muttonleg with pretty silk cuffs and buttons for ornaments. She had a brown batiste shirred bonnet. Her wedding hat was a large white "Navarino" trimmed with satin. Her travelling bonnet when she came to Ohio was a white leghorn trimmed with ribbon and she wore a long black lace veil worn over the face or thrown back at pleasure. She had ~~embroidere~~ lace and done fancy needle-work but had no knowledge or experience in plain sewing, cutting and making garments.

The first Thanksgiving after her marriage her aunt living in the ~~asame~~ house, they had all surrounded the table with friends old and young when the sleepers gave away and they all sat in the cellar.

REVISED

The first in the series after her marriage was about 1914 in the same house, and all surrounded the table with friends old and young when the singers gave away and took all set in the cellar.
